THOUSANDS OF VETERANS IN GREAT PARADE

GREAT SCENE IN SAN FRANCISCO

TURKS KILL BULGARIANS IN COLD BLOOD

BULGARIANS MURDERED BY TURKS.

Russian Squadron Will Reach Destination Today.

There is Great Fear of a Massacre in Salonica.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Tuesday, August 18.—The Russian squadron is expected this afternoon. It will anchor in the Bay of Miadia, off the coast of European Turkey, between Bourgas and the entrance of the Bosphorus, eighty miles from the latter.

FEARS OF PORTE.

The attitude of indifference hitherto assumed by the Turkish officials towards Russia's action is giving way to one of marked concern. The Porte fears that Russia contemplates making still more important demands than contained in the recent note of M. Zinovoff, the Russian Ambassador, such as the appointment of a Christian Governor-General of Macedonia. This idea, however, does not find support in diplomatic quarters, where the conviction prevails that Russia is working in full agreement with Austria.

No difficulty is anticipated on the part of Turkey to the acceptance of the Russian demands with the possible exception of the appointment of European officers to command the gendarmerie.

This is likely to arouse opposition and it is thought that Russian anticipation thereof led to the dispatch of the squadron, the presence of which was hardly required to enforce a fulfillment of the other terms.

The Russian demands on Turkey growing out of the recent murder of the Russian Consul at Monastir, M. Rostkovoski, were formally presented at the Yildiz Palace today.

TURKS POOR SOLDIERS.

Notwithstanding the warning which Russia addressed to the Bulgarian government, it is generally believed here that the Russian naval demonstration in Turkish waters will dangerously encourage the Macedonians, who, it is asserted, will interpret Russia's action as being the first step towards intervention in their behalf.

The insubordination of the Turkish troops is regarded as being one of the greatest dangers of the present Balkan crisis. The lack of discipline among the soldiers is marked. It is found necessary to humor them in order to prevent conflicts between the soldiers and their officers. For instance, a regiment while on the way from Uskub to Monastir, demanded that the train be stopped at Salonica for twelve hours instead of for the scheduled half hour, so that the soldiers might amuse themselves in the town. After futile endeavors to prevail upon the men to allow the train to proceed, the officers

BULGARIANS VESSEL ON FIRE AT SEA.

Fifty Cases of Giant Powder Are Thrown Overboard.

Crew Has a Narrow Escape From Being Blown Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—The brig Henry G. Irwin, hence here August 15th to Rock Harbor, returned to this port today on fire. Captain Cathley reports that on August 17th, at 9 o'clock p. m., he discovered smoke coming through the cabin floor.

After searching the hold, fire was located in the forward hatch.

The hatches were battened down all night and on the following morning were removed.

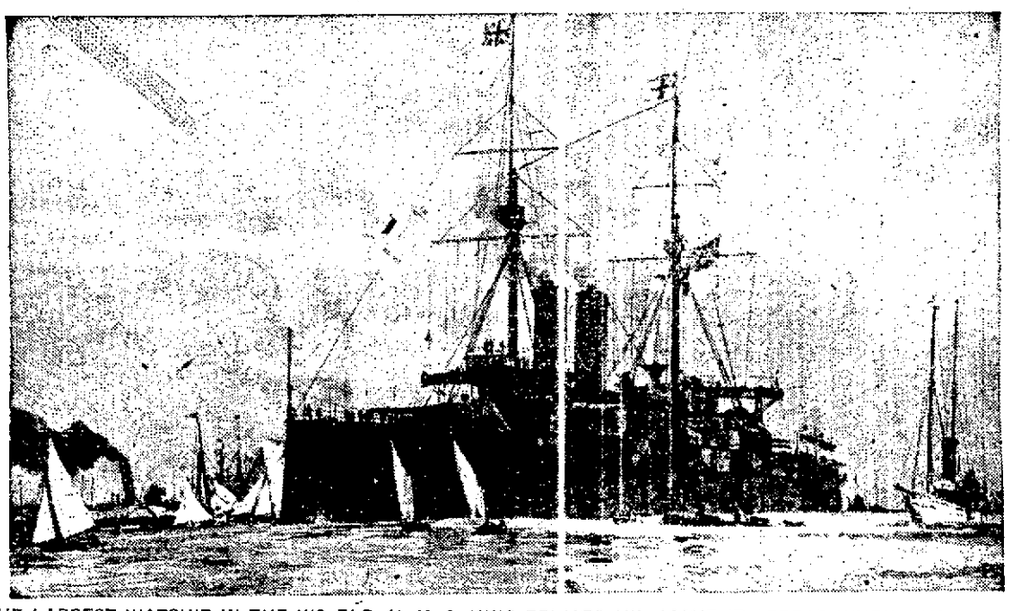

It was discovered that the lime slack in the cargo was on fire.

The vessel's bottom and sides were burning and Captain Cathley ordered the boats made ready and provisioned, and they were towed astern of the burning vessel.

On the evening of the same day, fifty cases of giant powder were taken out of the hold and thrown overboard and the vessel's course headed for this city.

The Irwin was picked up off the heads by the steamer Navarro and towed into the harbor and docked at Meiggs wharf. When she reached the bay the flames were coming through the decks.

The Irwin is owned by Henry Cowell & Company and is badly damaged.

GBAND ARMY MEN PASS IN REVIEW.

Splendid Parade Across the Bay in Which Prominent Men of the Nation Took Part.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—The parade today of the Veterans of the Grand Army in this city will be long remembered by the thousands of people who packed the strets along the line of march to witness it.

Not a few of them recognized that for them this meant the passing of the heroes of many a bloody struggle in defense of the union for all time in a collective body so far as this city is concerned. Devoid of all the pomp and panoply of the warlike host which marched in all the pride of strength and youth in yesterday's parade, there was something pathetic in the thinned-out ranks of the veterans who marched today, which touched the hearts of all who saw them.

MARCHED LIKE HEROES.

Bowed with the weight of years, worn out and weary, but animated by the fires of an unquenching spirit, this remnant of a mighty host which had carved out victory for the republic on the hardest fought battlefields the world has ever seen, marched proudly along, the last of an unconquered band of heroes.

They looked the part they had played as makers of history in this country of their birth or adoption, as the case might be.

Proudly they marched with the battle flags waving above the swaying ranks—flags which bore the marks of shot and shell in many a fierce fray—comrades together now as they were then.

With military precision these old soldiers of Antietam, Vicksburg, the Wilderness, Gettysburg and Appomattox, swung into line at the appointed hour, ready for the command to march.

The line extended from the corner of Stockton and Geary streets east on the latter to Kearny to Montgomery avenue to Market, to Van Ness avenue, where disbandment followed a review by the marshal, the national and departmental commanders of the order.

FLAGS WAVED.

The streets were reserved for the marching host by lines of policemen, who were backed by wire cables strung along on either side of the thoroughfare. Behind these cables stood a throng of cheering mortals from the tenderest years to those who have long been classed among the aged.

These lines with human hedges were in turn backed up by the walls of gaily-decorated structures. Countless thousands of flags waved in the air and every window and balcony was alive with a shouting, cheering, exultant gathering of people, who were carried away in spirit by the patriotic motive of the scene.

There was a constant succession of cheers, now for a State, now for a wounded comrade and again because of some unique design or symbol, which had found its way into the history of the civil conflict.

GREAT SCENE.

In front of the Palace Hotel, the scene was one which can never be obliterated from the memory of any person who witnessed it. The immense width of Market street was the sole possession of the marchers while the facade of the immense hostelry seemed converted into an immense Persian tapestry, which glowed with unexampled richness of color and which was instinct with life itself. The hands, handkerchiefs and features of fair women as well as brave men tended to produce this animation and bestowed upon the poor foot-worn marchers beneath, an ovation worthy of a world's conqueror.

The weather could not have been better suited to the occasion had it been vouchsafed in response to the fervid orisons of the marching host. A breeze from the west tempered the heat of the sun, and in it there was a quantity of ozone which gave new vigor to the veteran host. The breeze, too, caused every flag along the line to break out in graceful folds, thus keeping up a voiceless cheer to the country saviors beneath.

YEARS AGO AND NOW.

In some respects, there was a remarkable difference between the parade of today and that which took place 17 years ago, when the encampment was last held in this city. The homage of today was to men of humble station, only one of the really great men of the war, General Miles, being in the column. The homage of nearly twenty years ago was inspired by the presence of a host of leaders, nearly all of whom have now been called to the great encampment beyond the tomb.

It has been the wont of people for years agone to talk about the old soldier marching with less elasticity of step, less martial erectness in his carriage, and this is no doubt true.

But, the veterans of today were not the shuffling, strangling, enfeebled men that many expected they would be. There was there, of course, the lame, the halt, the man in the invalid's chair and the man with the empty sleeve, but the resoluteness with which they addressed themselves to the task before them won the commendation of everybody and enabled the marchers to maintain a column, which was marvelous, when considered from all points of view.

SPIRIT OF VETERANS.

There was a spirit displayed by the veterans which impressed itself upon the onlooker and that was the men in line were not rejoicing a conquered foe. There were memories on this point to destroy and these the veterans had banished from recollection. They paraded in honor of a country saved, a country re-united with none but brotherly love for the erstwhile fraternal foe. The spectacle will never be dimmed in the mind of any person who gazed upon it.

IN THE PARADE.

Accompanying the Commander-in-Chief Stewart was Quartermaster-General Burrows, Judge Advocate-General Beers, Adjutant-General John

ENTERTAINED BY PRESIDENT

SENATOR KEARNS AND H. L. STODDARD LUNCH WITH MR. ROOSEVELT.

OYSTER BAY, August 19.—Among the guests of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt at luncheon today were Senator and Mrs. Thomas L. Kearns of Utah and Henry L. Stoddard, editor of the New York Mail and Express. Senator Kearns desires again to see the President in connection with some Federal appointments in his section and to discuss with him the proposed work of the approaching session of Congress.

ALL THE MEN WERE MURDERED

Two Hundred Women Tell of a Dreadful Massacre.

Fifteen Villages Have Been Destroyed by Rebels.

SOFIA, August 19.—Reports from Monastir say 200 women, who have arrived there from the Bulgarian village of Rakovo, have presented petitions to the Russian and Austrian consuls and to Hilmi Pasha, the Inspector-General, setting forth that their village has been burned and that all the males of the population have been massacred.

Fifteen villages in the district of Okrida, three in the district of Lerin and three in the district of Resena have been destroyed.

Further details of the fighting at Krushevo show that the insurgents retired to a point in the vicinity of the town after losing sixty men killed and twelve wounded. The Turkish loss was 250 men killed or wounded.

A band of seventy insurgents near Kojle, in the vilayet of Uskub, fought a detachment of Turkish troops all day. Nine of the insurgents were killed. The Turkish losses are not known. On the following day a party of Bashi Bazouks entered the village and slaughtered all the inhabitants.

Severe fighting is reported to have occurred near Vetarsko. The result is not known.

LARGE FENCE IS COMPLETED.

BUTTE, Mont., August 19.—A dispatch from Helena says that the fence about the Fort Belknap Indian reservation, which is forty miles long and sixty miles wide, has at last been finished. It is probably the longest fence in the world and has taken a year in building. The fence is to protect the flocks and herds of the Grosventres and Assinaboines from intrusion as well as to keep them from straying.

TORPEDO BOATS PASS CAPES.

PORTSMOUTH, Va., August 19.—The flotilla of torpedo boats passed inside the Capes this morning bound for the navy yard here.

WILL HAVE TO COMMIT OUTRAGES.

Insurgent Leader Says Railroads Will be Wrecked.

Begs the Officials Not to Carry Any Passengers.

VIENNA, August 19.—A telegram from Boris Sarafoff, the active leader of the Macedonian insurgents to the management of the Oriental Railroads, is published here.

Sarafoff says that "The general staff of the revolutionary committee of Macedinia and Adrianople announces that in consequence of the rising of the Christian population of Macedonia for liberation from Turkish rule" they will "necessarily have to commit outrages on railways," and he begs the management, "from humane considerations, to accept no passengers in order that there may be no unnecessary sacrifices to deplore."

Another bomb outrage is reported to have occurred at Philopopolis.

A bomb was thrown into the house of a merchant there and three persons were killed.

SHOPS DESTROYED.

QUEBEC, August 19.—The Northern Railway shops were completely destroyed by fire early today. Loss, $75,000, covered by insurance.

ATTRACTIONS AT IDORA PARK

SENORITA MARIA ASPIROZ.

Senorita Aspiroz is a graduate of Madrid's conservatory. She has played before the Spanish King and other notables. She has won applause all over Europe. She is now playing at Idora Park.

Everyone is enjoying the new bill at Idora Park this week. Besides the talented artists who are appearing, one of which are Maria Aspiroz, the famed young violinist, who is a protege of President Diaz of Mexico; Miss Miriam Mar, the coon shouter, who is pleasing everybody; Smith and Clark, musicians; Billy Evans, the comedian; Pete Dunsworth, the tenor in illustrated songs, etc., there are the many outdoor attractions. The laughing gallery, with its countless looking glasses, which make you laugh until your sides ache. A ride on the scenic railway will also be enjoyed. The rapid motion of the car in its circuitous journey, ascending and descending, is very thrilling.

The coal mine is one of the most interesting attractions at Idora Park. The visitors get on a car, which goes slowly round and round in what appears to be an immense coal mine. They see the men and boys at work and now and then a terrific blast of powder and its unfortunate victims. The scene is weird and grand, as all the workings of a real coal mine are vividly portrayed.

The incubators, in which tiny mites of humanity are living and growing, is an especial attraction at the park, which will interest every visitor.

Professor Seaburg, the trick diver, performs every afternoon and evening. Friday night, which is devoted to amateurs, is enjoyed more than any other night. There is a matinee every afternoon except Monday.

The admission to the theater is 10 and 20 cents. Idora Park is located on Telegraph avenue and Fifty-sixth street. Take Telegraph avenue car.

BODY FOUND IN ALAMEDA

NO PAPERS IN POCKETS THAT WOULD LEAD TO IDENTIFICATION.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—A body was found floating this morning about two miles from Alameda along the Bay Farm Island shore by Frank Miranda. It was conveyed to the branch morgue in this city.

The body was that of a man about six feet one inch tall, and was dressed in a dark blue worsted frock coat with vest of the same material, and blue overalls. On the feet were blue woolen socks, and a pair of low cut slippers. A broad leather belt was worn around the waist. The body appears to have been in the water about three weeks. In one of the pockets several buttons were found marked "Liverpool, Brazil and Lakeside Railway," and in another an empty flask. No distinguishing marks have been found on the body, and it does not show evidence of violence. Dr. Tisdale will conduct an autopsy this afternoon.

were obliged to grant their demands.

KILLING OF WORKMEN.

The killing of Bulgarian workmen who were repairing the railroad track near Uskub is another grave instance of the insubordination of the Turkish troops. Details of the affair show that a trainload of Turkish soldiers, soon after leaving the railroad station at Uskub, not only fired on and killed three Bulgarians who were at work on the road and left the bodies lying on the line, but some of the soldiers left the train and pursued other Bulgarian workmen to a neighboring station where the Turks murdered them all in cold blood.

Consular reports received here from Monastir continue to emphasize the danger of an outbreak of Mohammedan fanaticism there. The consular agents have asked for protection and the question of dispatching warships to Salonica is being discussed by the representatives of the Powers.

ANOTHER VILLAGE DESTROYED

Dispatches from Turkish sources say the insurgents have destroyed another village in Macedonia.

The ambassadors of the Powers have again drawn the earnest attention of the Porte to the fears of a massacre at Salonica and have demanded the adoption of immediate measures for the protection of the foreign consulates and the subject of the various Powers.

Letters received here from Uskub say that there is danger of a great feeling of unrest and it is feared they may be attacked.

MONASTERY BURNED.

The monastery of the Holy Virgin, near Kitchero, has been burned by Albanians after a determined struggle between the defenders of the monastery and the insurgents, during which both sides lost heavily.

Servian refugees are arriving at Uskub from Dlora, having fled from there on account of fear of a massacre. The Albanians in that district have burned a number of Bulgarian villages.

RETAIL GROCERS ELECT OFFICERS.

LOS ANGELES, August 19.—The convention of the California Retail Grocers' Association has adjourned after electing the following board of officers for the coming year: President, J. S. Stulz, San Francisco; re-elected: secretary, L. Warnke, Alameda, re-elected; treasurer, John S. Elliott, San Francisco; vice presidents, William Lenhoff, San Francisco; George Russell, Oakland; J. B. Nelson, San Bernardino. Directors, S. J. Sill, Berkely; George T. Morris, Alameda; George H. Jones, San Jose; J. J. Hayes, J. T. Hurley and H. G. Lockman, San Francisco.

San Jose was selected as the place of meeting for the next annual convention.

CONVICT KILLS HIMSELF.

CANON CITY, Colo., August 19.—James Armstrong, the convict who led the recent jail break at the penitentiary, committed suicide by hanging in his cell last night. He played a dummy on his cot and his body was not discovered for some hours.

"AMERICANS" WIN VICTORY.

BOWLERS PLAY OFF FINAL OF SERIES OF THREE GAMES.

The third contest between the Americans and the Oakland Bowling Alleys took place last night at the American Bowling Alley on Seventh street. The evening's play was won by the American team by a score of 2144 to 1953. This was the last of a series of three games the Americans winning two out of three contests. By examination of the following scores it can be seen that the Americans were up to their proper form as the scores in each game are very close:

AMERICANS.

	1st	2d	3d	Total
Crockerton	150	165	214	429
Keating	151	164	158	473
Donnelly	115	128	151	394
Coburn	152	130	144	426
Parker	154	123	133	422
	722	716	700	2144

Legris bowled for Donnelly in the second game and Donnelly bowled for Coburn in the third game.

OAKLAND BOWLING ASSOCIATION.

	1st	2d	3d	Total
McKay	174	119	156	449
Bateman	131	141	109	381
Sorensen	108	105	128	341
Beckwith	162	108	135	405
———	122	130	125	377
	697	603	653	1953

The fifth man was blind, the club only having four men present.

These contests are of considerable interest to a large number of bowlers in this city. After last night's game a discussion as to the relative merits of two members of the American team, C. F. Legris and L. Keating, resulted in an individual contest between the two for a side bet of $5 each and was won by Keating by a score of 144 to 135. The $5 each had staked on the game seemed to have an un-nerving effect on the two bowlers and neither made within a score of points of what they are capable of making.

Gen. Geo. G. Meade No. 48, John F. Sheehan, Commander, 80 men.

Garfield No. 34, of San Francisco, F. E. Meyers, Commander, 150 men.

George A. Thomas Post of San Francisco acted as escort to the Commander-in-Chief, General Stewart, and made a most imposing appearance. They marched about 700 strong. They advanced, not like worn out fighters, but as stalwart men of commanding presence, who had started out in life with a good physique and with whom, since then, time had dealt most kindly. A finer marching body of men in civil life could not be found anywhere. Each member bore a national flag at carry arms, the colors draping over the right shoulder. The staff attached to the flag bore a silvered tip or spear and the effect of this, in the glancing rays of the sun, was that of a regiment with bayonets attached to their muskets. The post presented by far the most attractive appearance in the line.

POST IN.

Lincoln Post of San Francisco presented a very fine appearance. It was a solid, compact body, the members being attired in neat fitting G. A. R., with military caps with flat visors. They also marched with great precision. They also bore with them the following flags, which have felt the effect of the enemies' bullets and which are the priceless heirlooms of the citizens of California, the colors being allowed to be used for the occasion by Adjutant General Stone of California: First Infantry, California Volunteers, United States flag; Second California Infantry, California Volunteers, United States flag; Fourth Infantry, California Volunteers, regiment colors; Sixth Infantry, California Volunteers, United States flag; Sixth Infantry, California Volunteers, regiment colors; Eighth Infantry, California Volunteers, United States flag; Fourth Regiment, California Volunteers, United States flag; Tuolumne Rangers, Company F, First Infantry, United States flag; Company D, Second Cavalry, California Volunteers, guidon; Company I, Second Cavalry, California Volunteers, guidon; California Hundred Cavalry, United States flag presented by Miss Abbie A. Lord of Charleston, Mass.; California Hundred Cavalry, guidon; Company H, First California Cavalry, guidon; "Testimonial Flag," presented by Colonel Crowninshield, Second Massachusetts Cavalry, to the California 100 and battalion at close of the war.

Many a head was uncovered as these mementoes of bloody strife were borne along the streets.

LYON POST.

Lyon Post of Oakland made a gallant appearance, both numerically and in ranks. At its head behind the commander, marched D. W. C. Thompson bearing the tattered flag of the California Cavalry Battalion, United States Volunteers. That was organized in San Francisco in 1862, with five hundred men and sixteen officers, by General D. W. C. Thompson, then chief of staff for Major-General Allen, N. G. C. Company A, under Captain J. S. Reed, was sent East as soon as mustered, and the remaining force, under Major Thompson, followed soon. These five companies were the only California troops that reached the seat of war, where they served with distinction in the Department of Washington, the armies of the Shenandoah and Potomac, and various independent commands. They participated in more than fifty engagements, had six of their commissioned officers killed on the field, and fifty-eight enlisted men appointed commissioned officers in Eastern regiments, and at the close of the Rebellion were mustered out with one hundred and eighty-two survivors.

DISPLAY OF FLAGS.

There was still another display of flags and that was done by the Pennsylvania department. There was a small wilderness of the priceless trophies. The original bearers of them had fallen in the dust but their places had been taken and the symbols never fell into the hands of the enemy. The remnants of the once bright and richly-decorated banners, were closely draped about the staffs and over them was woven a silken net to prevent the disintegration of the remnants sanctified by the blood of martyrs. These flags were borne in the Civil War by the following commands:

The Fifth Corps, Third Division; Sixth Corps, Second Division; Twelfth Corps, Second Division; Twenty-third Pennsylvania Infantry; Sixty-first Pennsylvania Infantry; Eighty-second Pennsylvania Infantry; Ninety-ninth, Sixty-ninth, One Hundred and Fourth, Seventy-third, Ninety-eighth, One Hundred and Nineteenth, One Hundred and Twenty-first, Ninety-fifth, One Hundred and Ninth, One Hundred and Eighteenth, Forty-sixth, One Hundred and Nineteenth, One Hundred and Twenty-seventh, Ninety-first, Ninetieth, One Hundred and Fourteenth, Seventy-first, Twenty-seventh Infantry regiments; Thirty-third New Jersey and First California Brigade. The last flag was carried by Baker's regiment.

APPOMATTOX POST.

Appomattox Post of Oakland had about ninety men in line and these ranked high in the estimation of those who saw them. They were under command of Captain W. R. Thomas, one of the most ardent and intense Grand Army men in the country. With this post marched F. M. Farwell of Oakland, who was a member of the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment, which was the first to take the field. The first man killed in the war was a member of this regiment. The victim was Corporal Needham, who was killed by the mob in Baltimore when the regiment was marching to the front. Farwell stood beside Needham when the latter received his fatal wound. On his breast today was a silver medal with a blue grosgrain silk ribbon on which are woven symbols of the command. This medal bore, among other things, the words, "First in the Field." This medal was struck by Congress and a copy of it was given to each member of the old Sixth.

OLDEST MAN.

The oldest man presumably in the army marched today with Ellsworth Post of Santa Rosa. There were two men there who claimed the distinction, Franz Hermann, aged 90 years, who fought in the war with Mexico and all through the Civil War; and Paul Riel, of Arroyo Grande, who was marching with the Ellsworth men. He claimed to be 94 years of age.

MILES APPLAUDED.

General Miles was greatly applauded as he marched as he was everywhere recognized in the line.

In the Connecticut rank was Colonel W. H. Whitelaw, who carried a charm made of a bullet set in gold. This bullet was taken out of the colonel's head after one of the battles in which he had been shot, and when it was supposed that he must surely die.

NEBRASKA'S MEN.

Nebraska's representatives were headed by Judge Lee Estelle of Omaha, Neb., and A. V. Cole of Lincoln. They were as hardy a looking lot of men as one would like to see. They seemed to be just the kind of men to conquer grasshoppers, drouth, blizzards and tornadoes and then find time to struggle with Bryanism where Bryanism was born.

Marching with the Illinois delegation was John Savage, a Mexican War veteran of the Third Illinois Infantry, Cerro Gordo Command, No. 210, who carried a stuffed goose suspended from a pole, beneath which was the legend, "Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high." This was a rally cry of the regiment during the Civil War, and Savage has carried his emblem in every Grand Army parade for twenty-five years.

MICHIGAN'S MEN.

With the Michigan department, there was a man named Henry Wilson, who bore a live rooster on top of a box, which he had housed on a pole. The bird crowed from time to time, and crowing, as a consequence, became infectious all along the line.

Quite an amount of interest was centered in the juvenile band from the Masonic Orphans' Home in Decoto, Alameda county, which played a number of telling marches at the head of Lyon Post of Oakland.

DISTINGUISHED TRIO.

A distinguished trio rode at the head of the Wisconsin division. They were General MacArthur, commander of the Department of the Pacific; General Cobb and Colonel Lyon, all three being attired in civilian clothing. All three of these general officers are from Wisconsin and all have won national renown. General MacArthur was recognized all along the line of march and loudly cheered as he passed within the column. General Cobb was for many years Chief Justice of Nebraska.

Six survivors of the heroic Knapp's battery of light artillery marched in the line and were warmly greeted. This is the remnant of the 130 men of this hard-fighting regiment, who were mustered out at the close of the war and this the first occasion the battery has paraded since they appeared in the historic grand review of the Federal troops at Washington in May, 1865. This battery did efficient work at Chancellorsville, Fredericksburg and all through the Shenandoah Valley, concluding a brilliant record by marching with Sherman to the sea, entering Richmond later with Grant. Its most historic feat was the firing of the shot that killed General Polk before Resaca.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

With the District of Columbia contingent marched Dr. Charles F. Rand of Washington, D. C., who has the distinction of being the first volunteer to offer his services in the war of rebellion. Dr. Rand enlisted from Batavia, Genesee county, New York, on April 15, 1861. The clouds of war were hovering in the horizon, excitement was running with feverish interest. Lincoln's message flashed over the wires, and in ten minutes Rand's name was signed to the roster.

The citizens of New York presented the veteran with a beautiful gold medal emblematic of his unique achievement. He is also the recipient of the first Congressional medal of honor for conspicuous bravery at the battle of Blackburn's Ford.

No women, children or grotesque costumes were permitted in the column. Carriages were prohibited, and the few which appeared, not exceeding two in each department, were occupied by disabled veterans, driven in all cases to the left of the column of their respective departments.

The reviewing stand was on Van Ness avenue and there the departments marched past in perfect alignment after a long and tiresome march for many of the older veterans, showing up in brave style until dismissed by the grand marshal.

WORK IS RESUMED ON TUNNEL

NON-UNION MEN PUT TO WORK WITH ARMED PROTECTION.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., August 19.—Work on the drainage tunnel which was almost completed when the miners went on strike last week, was resumed today, 110 non-union men having been employed.

Of this number, twenty are armed guards who are stationed behind a rope strung around the property at a distance of 400 feet from the shaft house. It is said the miners will live in the shaft house until the tunnel is completed.

LADY FAIR FORFEITS BAIL IN POLICE COURT.

Lady Fair, a fair member of the Chinese colony, was to have appeared in the Police Court this morning to be tried on a charge of selling lottery tickets. But Lady Fair failed to appear, so her bail of $40 was declared forfeited. Lady Fair was arrested several weeks ago and at that time her bail was fixed at $100, but was afterwards reduced to $40.

GREAT WEST MUST BE RECOGNIZED.

President Kirby of the Trans-Mississippi Congress Welcomes Delegates to Seattle.

SEATTLE, Aug. 18.—John H. Kirby, president of the Trans-Mississippi Congress delivered the following address in welcoming the delegat on.

"Gentlemen of the Congress:—When Seattle was selected as the place at which to convene the fourteenth Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress, there were not a few who shook their heads and declared that Seattle look ng out upon the far Pacific, was too distant from the populous region to the Trans-Mississippi area to command a large attendance. Delegates from Louisiana and Texas who have responded to the roll refute that prophecy. This is significant in that it demonstrates that the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress has become a fixed entity among those great institutions that make for the progress of the American Republic.

"It is true that railroads eliminate time and distance, but these have been superseded by that staunch American sentiment and oneness of Commercial aim which has wiped out all but geographical divisions of the Republic, compelled the disappearance of sectional lines, and brought every citizen of the country without respect to what may be the state of his residence to stand for the symmetrical development of a superb social unity, ordained in the great primal law of evolution to construct on the Western Hemisphere the grandest and most lasting civilization this old world has ever known.

OBJECT OF CONGRESS.

"The Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress was conceived in the fact that the States on the Atlantic seaboard were receiving a greater share of benefactions from the general government than those contributory to the Gulf and the Pacific, and that an unofficial body, representing in concrete form the hopes and ambitions of a mighty people, populating an area that embraced two thirds of the then territory of the United States and producing approximately seventy per cent of its exports, could be made a potential factor in directing the American Congress to an impartial distribution of the favors of government. Then the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress was sectional. It was so in obedience to the law of economic necessity. But it is not so now, for whosoever participates in the life of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress is an evangel of American industry called to preach the doctrine of American pre-eminence. The Congress was organized to bring transportation facilities to the producers of the larger part of the nation's domestic and export wealth, who toil in the cotton and grain fields, in the lumber, the iron, the coal, and the oil regions and in the silver and lead and copper and gold mines of the West; to command the aid of the Government in fostering the agricultural possibilities of vast areas that with irrigation will give richer reward to the husbandman's patient labor than any other upon the earth's surface; to effect the development of harbors on the Gulf and Pacific coasts and to conserve the tremendous energies of the Mississippi River. These problems are all in process of solution, and the duty of the Government has become so obvious that no one need doubt the perfection of these vast enterprises. As tardy as the Government is in the execution of its obligations to the citizen, it has not been known to fail when once it sets its hand to the discharge of a great public duty. Indeed, that which is now the mission of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress is as broad, as deep and as eternal as the Republic itself.

ROAR OF GUNS.

"The roar of Dewey's guns at Manila was the strident voice of evolution. Destiny directed that voice, and when it spoke it declared anew the doctrine of the survival of the fittest and blazed the way for American supremacy over the world. Since that portentous hour, with the economies for the promotion of which it was organized, disposed of in a large measure, the mission of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress is become to insist on opening up the routes to the markets of the Orient and to the Pacific Coast States of Latin America that the surplus products of the country may find profitable sale, for by no other policy is it possible to insure and to maintain the prosperity and the commercial supremacy of the United States.

"Already the rapid commercial growth of the United States has aroused a jealousy and apprehension on the part of European powers which will not show all their infinite diplomacy can conceal. This is gratifying to American pride, but it likewise is a challenge to American genius. Whatever diplomatists may tell you we stand alone without an ally in this Titanic struggle for supremacy among the giant nations of the world. If we win we will win upon American initiative and sustained industry. If we fail, we will fail through the decadence of American statesmanship. That is impossible.

BEHOLD OUR COMMERCE.

"Behold how our commerce has grown and multiplied by leaps and bounds. The excess of our exports over imports is greater than that of all other countries combined. And it is the trade balance that determines commercial primacy. The total exports of the United States for the year 1902 amounted to the dizzy aggregate of $1,355,000,000. As recently as 1879 the total exports were but $376,000,000, or $60,000,000 less than the aggregate imports for that year, and yet, as gratifying as is the vast balance between exports and imports it is but small when compared to that which will obtain when we shall take from German and Great Britain the impor trade of the Pacific Coast States of Latin America, our geographical heritage, and crowd upon the Asiatic the products of our flour and cotton mills and looms and foundries and machine shops.

"The international commerce of the world in manufactures amounted last year to $4,000,000,000, and the United States furnished more than 10 per cent of this grand total.

"When we consider that the exports year to $4,000,000,000, and the United States amounted to but $1,243,547 in 1796, and that in 1890, after a lapse of one hundred years, they had grown to but $151,102,376, while in the last twelve years they have reached a sum in excess of $250,000,000, the extraordinary expansion of our commerce is realized. In the contemplation of so marvelous an exhibit is not the most undulgent American prompted to commiserate the noisy croakers of calamity who predict disaster for this giant of the new world that is laying commercial tribute on every land in which civilization has pushed its triumphs?

"But talk about our commerce and the prosperity of the country until transported by the magic of figures, we experience the sensation of personal riches, and after all the basis of our trade balance and the foundation of all our wealth is the American farm. We have cotton and lumber and rice mills, blast furnaces and packeries and sugar and oil refineries and coal, iron, silver and gold mines in this wonderful region of the West, where natural resources have conveniated with destiny to make ours the richest and strongest country on the habitable globe. The factory and the blast furnace and the packery must eventually come to the raw material. They have come to many, they will come to all of the States of this productive region. That is inevitable. To save transportation of raw material and to put the finished products closest to points whence they can clear to trans-oceanic markets is a law of economics as immutable as any law of nature. Still the farm is the hope of the West and will continue to constitute the basic sill of American commerce and civilization.

OUR WEALTH.

"It is out of the ground that the wealth of the surviving nation must come. It is the farm that supports the fabric society. The silver and the gold mine will pinch out, oil sands cease to yield their treasure, and lumber forests be devoured by hungry mills, but the American farm will stand as long as the earth shall endure. The cities may become congested and anarchy find in them its places of refuge, but not so the agricultural districts. Where plenty rewards contented and honest toil and nature sings its eternal harmonies in the ears of men there is no rebellion against constituted authority, no riot against the law, no tempest of communism. Agriculture paints the glow of health upon the cheeks of its daughters, and weaves the steel of Hercules into the arms of its sons. These form the basis of American stability and peace and constitute the rock upon which the waves of imported ignorance and anarchy will break.

"It has been said that the population of the United States doubles every thirty years. If so, where thirty years from today will we care for an added 75,000,000 of people? This suggests no new problem. It is as old as the Colonial Policy of Great Britain and Continental Europe. It indeed runs back like an ill-omened shadow through the history of nations that were older when they fell than my that now stand forth in the vast struggle for primal place among the great powers. What will the Republic of America do with this strenuous brood growing up about our knees, with the heritage of freedom in their blood and the instinct of conquest in their thought, put here by the men of Valley Forge and Trenton and by those matchless pioneers who surveyed the course of empire to the West over mountain ranges and through primeval forests? You say we will put them in the mighty West and your answer has in it the inspiring suggestion of a splendid prophecy rushing on to fulfillment. And why not? It is estimated that the Government can reclaim 100,000,000 acres of land from the arid and desert wastes of the West, while in Texas alone, if it were as densely populated as Massachusetts, we could take care of 80,000,000 of the earth's population.

AS TO IRRIGATION.

"Let me say to you that irrigation is as old as the pyramids and that wherever extensive agriculture is practiced today, you find the wealthiest and most contented people in the world. But after this, then what? When the West is developed to the limit of its productive capacity and the ability of the country to consume domestic products is over-reached, then what? This is a question for statesmen to deal with—not for those puny creatures who tax their energies to meet the mere requirements and exigencies of partisan politics, but for men of affairs, who hold in their hands the destinies of the greatest nation that ever rose and the fortunes of the most commanding race of men and women the history of this world has ever known.

"Time was when the Mississippi river marked the stopping place of the American Republic, nor did it go beyond into the wilderness of the West until a President of the United States confessedly, without the warrant of the Constitution consummated the Louisiana purchase. That spirit of adventure and demand for elbow room that has characterized every progressive people since the Phoenicians looked out upon the sea and dominated the commerce of the world swept Americans on to the possession of the Trans-Mississippi regions. It was that same energy and foresight that bore Americans on to the embracement of Florida, Texas and California into the territory and Union of the States.

GREAT AMERICAN LAW.

"Obeying still the same spirit of yielding to the same great law the American has begun the commercial invasion of the Orient in anticipation of that hastening day when the surplus of food stuffs and manufacturers of our developing country must find a purchaser not alone in the Asiatic, but in the spheres of colonial and commercial influence now occupied by Great Britain and Continental Europe. And in this thought I am reminded that from this audacious city of Seattle was shipped under the directing genius of the greatest railroader in the West, the first cargo of American cotton that ever cleared out of an American port for the Orient.

"When I consider the geographical position of the United States with respect to Mexico, with respect to the Pacific Coast States of Latin America, with reference to the Pacific Coast provinces of China with their teeming millions of population now dependent on Europe to provide them with the necessities and that Europe to gain the trade of the Orient, must cross two oceans while the United States will cross but one, I am convinced that the Great Master of the universe has designed the American republic to eventually become the one transcendent civilization of the world. But the Great Master will not solve for us the problems in transportation and statesmanship that these conditions make obligatory upon a chosen people. Not the least of thes is a consulate service in the hands of business training and acumen rather than in those of men who hold their positions by the grace of partisan favor. It is the peculiar province of this Congress to consider this as well as other problems to which I have given but scant attention in an address demanded rather than as a matter of form, than as an exhaustive treatise on economics. I will therefore no longer encroach upon your prerogative but will leave to the gentlemen selected by your Executive Committee and whose names appear on the program the expert and authoritative discussion of those great questions upon the adjustment of which now depends the wealth and perpetuity of a civilization greater today than any that has gone before it."

SHOT DEAD AT DOOR.

DRUNKEN MAN IS KILLED ON RANCH IN SOUTH.

BAKERSFIELD, August 18.—John McCune, alias "Black Jack," a laborer employed by the Kern County Land Company, was shot and killed at 3 o'clock this morning by Louis Riddle, butcher at the Bellevue ranch several miles from Bakersfield. McCune had been in the city drinking heavily for several days and came to the ranch last night very much intoxicated. About 3 o'clock this morning he came to the house where Riddle and a fellow-employe were sleeping and raised a disturbance in the yard. When asked what he was doing, he replied with an oath and attacked his questioner. Riddle shot him dead at the door with a shotgun before he knew who he was.

The deceased was single man about 50 years of age and had been in Kern County about twenty years.

HE KIDNAPED FARMER'S WIFE.

DAVENPORT, Ia., August 18.—Sheriff Barclay of Tipton today captured August Lueth, a farm hand who confessed that he kidnaped Mrs. John Melsrow of Bennett and held her in the cellar of a deserted house while awaiting a ransom of $50,000 from her husband. Lueth was taken at once to the jail at Tipton for fear of violence.

WILL NOW CLOSE THE STREET.

Mayor Olney today signed an ordinance recently passed by the City Council closing Forty-second street, between Telegraph avenue and Grove street. The ordinance was introduced at the instance of Richard Montgomery, who proposes making improvements in that vicinity.

PRIVATE BANK CLOSES DOORS.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., August 18.—The private bank of Kinney & Company at Angola closed its doors today. The deposits amount to about $80,000. The assets and liabilities are unknown.

WILL NOT GO TOVANCOUVER.

TACOMA, Wash., August 18.—It is settled that the Tacoma baseball team will not go to Vancouver. Louks has signed with Spokane; St. Vrain goes to the Seattle team of the Pacific Coast League and the rest of the team may tour the State.

ANOTHER BOY IS MURDERED.

ROCKFORD, Ill., August 18.—The murder of the Detroit boy is identical in circumstances with the murder of Dick Tibbets, a seven-year-old newsboy, here last month. The details correspond so closely that the authorities believe that the murderer is the same man, a lunatic of the "Jack-the-Ripper" type, and are now in communication with the Detroit police on the subject.

TOOK REVOLVER FROM WORKMAN.

BERKELEY, August 18.—This afternoon three striking telephone linemen took a revolver from A. Myer, a non-union man who was at work at the corner of Addison street and Shattuck avenue. The revolver was placed in Erlandson's hardware store, where it was eventually recovered by Deputy Marshal Howard, who took it to the City Hall. Myer finally secured possession of the weapon by presenting to Marshal Kerns an order which gives him authority to carry a concealed weapon in any part of Alameda county. The men who took the revolver from Myer were William Ward, David Loudermilk and James Shaughnessy.

SACRAMENTO, August 18.—The State Board of Equalization has the matter of the assessment of the United Railways of San Francisco before it again today. Representatives of the company appeared before the board to supplement the arguments already made in favor of a reduction of assessment of the company's property, the board taking the matter under advisement.

NEWS FROM ALAMEDA

NOTIFY FRIENDS OF MARRIAGE BY WIRE.

YOUNG ALAMEDA COUPLE STEALS A MARCH ON THEIR RELATIVES.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—Harry Hegelund and Miss Maybelle Putzman surprised their friends by quietly slipping off Sunday and getting married at Christ Episcopal Church. They started South on a honeymoon trip and wired the news to relatives. This marriage was expected to occur some time ago, but a lover's quarrel separated them, which was brought to a happy termination by the event of Sunday. Mr. Hegelund is a well-known member of the Alameda Boat Club. The couple will reside in this city on their return from the South.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—John Reagan, whose death was announced yesterday, at the age of 76 years, will be buried tomorrow. Services will be held at his late residence, 2912 Lincoln avenue, at 10 a. m., after which the remains will be conveyed to San Francisco for interment in Laurel Hill cemetery, under ritual of the Odd Fellows Lodge, No. 3, of that city of which he was a member.

Mr. Reagan came to California in 1849, overland by way of Lassen's Pass from Tennessee, the State of his nativity. He began his career in this commonwealth as a miner at Bidwell's Bar, following that vocation for some time with varying success. He then went to San Francisco and became an active participator in the strenuous times of those early days. He was there during the great fire in the early 50's and was a member of the famous Vigilance Committee that did such effective work in making the city a habitable place for the law abiding element. For years he was in the restaurant business over there and was one of the best known and most highly respected eating house men of the city. He started the first temperance restaurant opened there and opened a number of midnight missions, all of which were successfully conducted. He was a lifelong member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a Veteran of the Mexican War. For thirteen years he has been a resident of Alameda, and during the last two years was practically confined to his bed, a sufferer from the attacks of rheumatism.

EDITOR WILL TAKE TWO WEEKS' REST.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—Robert H. Magill, city editor of the Argus, has been ailing for some weeks and today he will start for Grass Valley for a two weeks' rest.

THEY ARE GRAND ARMY VISITORS.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Daniells of Coldwater, Mich., are visiting their brother, T. C. Daniells. The former came out to attend the Grand Army Encampment, and expresses himself delighted with the country, with Alameda and with the hospitality evidenced on all sides.

OLD RESIDENT RETURNS ON VISIT.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—B. B. Porter, an old-time resident of this city, arrived yesterday from Southern California. Almost a quarter of a century ago he was in business here on Park street, near Webb avenue. He came forth to attend the Grand Army Encampment.

YOUNG COUPLE WILL MARRY.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—License to marry has been issued to Joseph J. Kreig and Agnes S. Wolf, both of Alameda.

EVERETT SCHOOL IS TO BE MADE MODERN AND UP-TO DATE.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—At last night's meeting of the School Trustees, Secretary Hughes was directed to advertise for bids for the remodeling of the Everett school. It is the intention to make this, the oldest school building in the city, modern in every particular and plans for its improvement have already been submitted by Architects Stone and Smith and approved. There is a sum of $3000 available for remodeling and equipment that was saved by good management out of the recent $100,000 bond issue, for the erection of the new high school, and it will be used for this purpose.

SEVERAL CHANGES IN TEACHING CORPS.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—The Board of Education met in regular session last night, all the members present except Dr. Brown. The expected resignation of Director Baurhyte was not forthcoming, although he is going to Los Angeles very soon to take up his permanent residence, so the anticipated selection of his successor was necessarily postponed. Miss Olive Brownill of the Haight School was granted a six months' leave of absence and Miss L. C. N. Guthrie of the Wilson School was transferred to the Haight as teacher of history and literature in place of Miss Brownill. Miss Edith Carpenter was promoted from the primary to the grammar grade of the Wilson School in place of Miss Carpenter, and Miss Lilia Forderer was appointed to the place vacated by Miss Carpenter. Mr. Lyman Hanford was appointed assistant in the night school.

VETERANS TURN OUT STRONG.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—Joe Hooker Post, No. 11, turned out its full strength this morning with colors flying and went over to participate in the monster parade of the Grand Army of the Republic, scheduled to take place today in San Francisco.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

At Los Angeles:

	R.	H.	E.
Los Angeles	3	7	2
Oakland	2	5	0

Batteries—Gray and Spies; Lee and Gorton.

There was only one game played in the Pacific Coast League series yesterday, and that took place at Los Angeles between the leaders and Pete Lohman's Recruits. The latter played in hard luck and lost a 3 to 2 game. Oakland started out bravely and scored two runs in the initial period, but Gray steadied down after that and shut the Recruits out for the balance of the game. After four innings of goose eggs, the Angels fell on Lee for three good hits which neted them as many runs. Lee did not allow another Angel to see the home plate, but the damage was done and the game lost.

"Moose" Baxter made his reappearance in the game at Los Angeles yesterday and made his debut as a third baseman. The "Moose" is quite a versatile player and can cover almost any position on the team creditably.

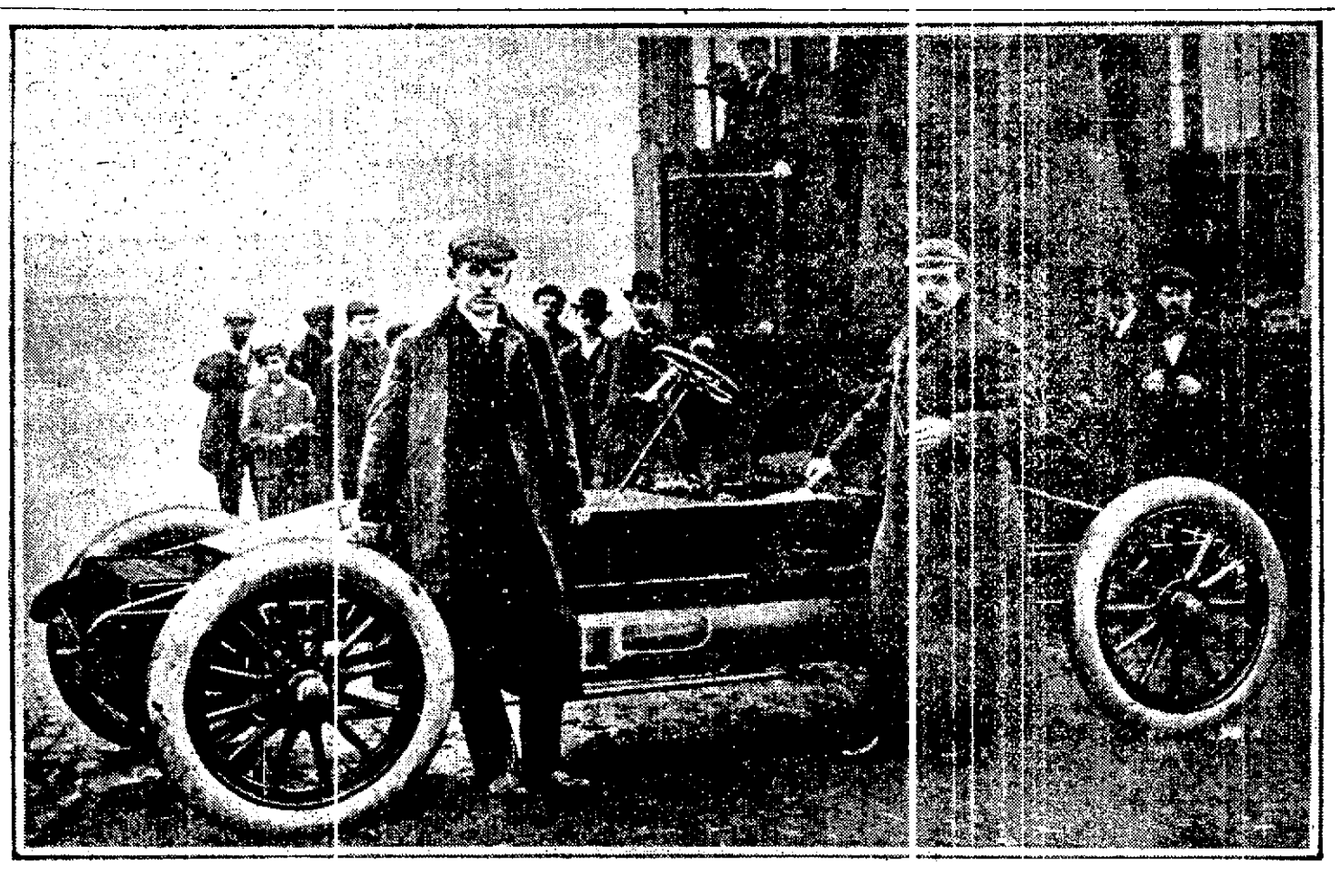

Neither the Portland nor Seattle teams were able to arrive at their destinations in time to play yesterday afternoon on this side of the bay and Sacramento, so the series with San Francisco and Sacramento did not begin until today.

All of the players in the Pacific Coast League are meeting the ball hard and on August 1 there were sixteen batting .300 or more. Van Buren, the hard hitting fielder of the Portland team, has supplanted Dillon at the head of the list. Nadeau of Portland is a close third. Following are the averages of the players on August 1:

Dinton was captain of the American team in the international contest for the Gordan Bennett cup. He is an enthusiast on automobiles. He expects to make a record with his new car.

WILL PRESENT MEDALS.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL PLAYERS TO ATTEND FIRST ANNUAL SMOKER.

The first annual "smoker" of the California Association Football League will be held in Scottish Hall, San Francisco, on Thursday evening. The double object of the "smoker" is to give the members of the various clubs in the league an opportunity of meeting in social good fellowship and the presentation to the Rifles Football Club of the medals won by them last season in the league contests.

A splendid and varied program has been arranged in which such well-known singers and story-tellers as Arthur Bentley, Will Hunter, Hugh Williamson, Percy Chambers, the great half-back, and Louis J. Zork will figure. Some of San Francisco's most popular public entertainers have also cordially volunteered to help with the entertainment, but the names will not be given out until Thursday.

On Friday evening, August 21, the Rifles Football Club will meet to complete arrangements for the coming season.

On Wednesday, August 26, the Oakland Hornets will meet in Oakland to elect officers and decide on uniform for 1903-4.

On Friday, September 4, the league will meet and the association will be formed. All clubs then organized will be expected to send two delegates to the meeting. At this meeting it will be decided whether the California Football Association shall join the Pacific Athletic Association.

ANNUAL REGATTA IN NORTH

PROMINENT YACHTSMEN TAKE PART IN THE PROGRAM.

ASTORIA, Or., August 19.—The ninth annual regatta which opens today gives every promise of being the best that has ever been held here. Yesterday afternoon the steamer Potter from Portland bearing Admiral Smith in full uniform and Governor Chamberlain, both accompanied by their staffs and the royal guests who comprise all the Queens of the various carnivals held in the Northwest this year was met above Tongue Point by a fleet of steamers, the regatta committee and the Mayor of Astoria. To the accompaniment of tooting whistles and ringing of bells the royalties were bade welcome and then escorted to the wharf where with great acclaim they were presented to Queen Frances. The affair last evening was informal but the spirit augurs well for the more formal ceremony today.

Boat crews are now here from Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., San Francisco, Willapa and Shoalwater bay, and the Portland representatives are expected today.

With the arrival of every train and steamer people have been pouring in and the city is filled to overflowing with visitors, all keyed to a high expectancy for the commencement of the fete.

BODY NOT IDENTIFIED.

MARTINEZ, August 19.—The body of the unknown white man found floating in the waters of the bay near Point Isabel Monday afternoon still remains unidentified. From the style of the button found on the man's vest it is thought that he may have been a waiter.

SKULL WAS FRACTURED.

In the case of T. Morrissey, who was found dead beside the track at First and Webster streets last Sunday morning, the Coroner's jury brought in a verdict of death as a result of a fractured skull

CORBETT STARTS EAST.

HE MAY JOIN WITH JEFFRIES LATER IN EXHIBITION BOUTS.

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Corbett, Yank Kenny, John McKenzie and "Professor" Thomas Dare, left Oakland this morning for the East. The party will make its first stop at Chicago. Corbett will open his season as a monologist soon in St. Louis. He and Champion Jeffries have had a number of conferences lately and it is not unlikely that the two may give some exhibition sparring matches in the East this year.

When bidding Jeffries good-by yesterday Corbett said, "I'll be a good booster for you in the East Jim."

Notwithstanding "Gentleman Jim" was defeated in the fight last Friday evening, he has received many telegrams during the week complimenting him on his game showing against the champion. Corbett has evidently lost none of his popularity since the bout, but on the contrary, seems to be increasing in public favor. This will no doubt considerably alleviate the naturally "blue" feling a vanquished fighter will experience.

Harry and Tom Corbett leave shortly for a month's horse-back trip through Lake and other northern counties.

WEEK'S CRUISE.

PROMINENT YACHTSMEN WILL TAKE PLEASURE TRIP UP THE BAY.

Bruce Palmer, a prominent member of the Corinthian Yacht Club and one of the crew of the Frolic, with William Laughlin, an old-time yachtsman, and A. Trestler, a well-known member of the Oakland fire department, left last Monday for a week's pleasure trip on the yacht Josie.

GRAND CROSSING IS DESTROYED.

CHICAGO, August 19. — The Grand Crossing Elevator Company building at Grand Crossing was destroyed by fire last night, the loss being $60,000; insurance $40,000.

While on the way to the fire, an engine was overturned and Lieutenant Dennis Moss was severely injured. Firemna John Beckman and Morris O'Connor were bruised. The fire is said to have started from heated machinery.

YOUNG CORBETT IN DEMAND.

ATHLETIC CLUBS IN SAN FRANCISCO WANT TO MATCH HIM.

There is considerable speculation as to which athletic club in San Francisco will have charge of Young Corbett's fight when he comes to the coast. The feather-weight boxer is expected out in California some time in the near future. From what Eastern dispatches say, Corbett will meet Benny Jordan before the San Francisco Athletic Club. On the other hand, the managers of the Yosemite Club aver they are now in communication with the champion in regard to a mill with Jimmy Britt. If this latter encounter comes off, the weight will be either 130 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon or 132 pounds at the ringside in the evening.

YACHTS GO FOR TRIAL SPIN.

FIRST RACE FOR THE CUP WILL TAKE PLACE TOMORROW.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Under weather conditions that promise to be repeated tomorrow, on the occasion of the first of the races in the international series Reliance and Shamrock III, respectively the defender and the challenger for the America's cup, today left their moorings at Sandy Hook for the last spin before the race.

After months of trying of spars, ropes and blocks; after repeated tests of ballast, stretching of sails and burnishing of hulls, both boats are now in perfect condition, according to the ideas of their owners and designers, and today's sail was just a trial, not of speed, but for a final test of fittings and gear.

Interest has been considerably augmented in the yachts over night by the announcement that Reliance must allow Shamrock III a handicap of 1 minute and 45 seconds, and many yachtsmen sought places of vantage to-day to view the last trials.

The boats crossed Sandy Hook Bay on the starboard tack and in a 12 knot breeze out to sea. The sails of both filled perfectly. After they had sailed to a point about a mile southeast of the Scotland light, the Reliance headed back, running before the wind.

At 11:25, the Reliance reached Sandy Hook bay, dropped her jib and staysail and proceeded to her moorings. At 11:50, she was followed by Shamrock III, which came into the bay and was tied up to await the signal to start out for tomorrow's race.

MUST LIGHT ALL TUNNELS.

BERLIN, August 19.—Lessons taught by the recent disaster on the Paris underground railway are being applied by the Ministry of Public Works. Orders have been issued to the officials of the Berlin Underground and Overhead Railway to light all tunnels by wires wholly disconnected with the motor current and to install apparatus enabling train hands to break the traffic current anywhere and thus stop trains approaching the scene of an accident. The officials are also ordered to cease overcrowding cars.

KANSAS RIVER FALLS.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., August 19.—The Kansas river here and west is falling rapidly and no further fear of damage is felt. Boats must be used for several weeks to transfer persons between the

OTTS DETERMINED TO WIN.

MUCH INTEREST IN COMING BOUTS AT THE RELIANCE CLUB.

If determination and hard work count for anything then Billy Otts will be a sure winner when he meets Toby Irwin in the fifteen-round contest before the Reliance Club next Tuesday evening. He is putting in some hard licks at Sheehan's place in San Francisco and those who have seen him say that he is in excellent condition. He has trained hard and faithfully for the contest and intends to go after Britt if he wins. Britt has signified a willingness to meet the winner of the contest provided they show that they are entitled to consideration.

Irwin does not propose to allow Otts to carry off the large end of the purse if he can help it, and he is working like a beaver at Cecil's garden so as to be in the pink of condition. He is down to weight and his work is devoted to the acceleration of speed and strengthening his muscles. Those who have visited him at his training quarters are very favorably impressed with his chances.

Matchmaker Mahony of the Reliance Club has signed Young McConnell of West Oakland and Jimmy Smith of San Francisco for the curtain-rising event. They will box six rounds and will weigh about 145 pounds. They will be followed on the program by Danny Sullivan and Fred Otts, who are matched for an eight-round contest at 135 pounds. Sullivan is a very clever newcomer into professional ranks. He was Frankie Neil's chief sparring partner when the little champion was preparing for his recent fight with Forbes and on the right of that contest Sullivan sprang into prominence by the showing he made against Landers. Otts is a brother of Billy Otts and is said to be able to go some with the gloves.

The club is now devoting its attention to the erection of a modern and up-to-date ring, which will be raised about three feet and thus affording everyone a clear and unobstructed view of the fights. The seats on the lower floor will be nicely arranged with a view to the comfort of the spectators. There will be seats for 2500 spectators and present indications point to every seat being taken before Tuesday.

WILL ABANDON FORT M'HENRY.

BALTIMORE, August 19.—Historic Fort McHenry is to be abandoned as headquarters of United States troops in this State, according to orders received from the Secretary of War. Lieutenant-Colonel Thorpe is appointed district commander of the defenses to Baltimore and the headquarters are changed to the new Fort Howard at North Point, another site that figured in the revolution. Fort Howard is situated where the Patapsco river enters into Chesapeake bay. The quarters there are more modern and superior to those at Fort McHenry. Only one company of artillery will be continued at the latter fort, which will be preserved because of its historic interest. It is now so close in the harbor that it is of no value for defense. Fort Howard is ten miles below.

The section of Fort McHenry where the fighting was done in the revolution has been occupied by only the quartermaster's department for some years. The guns that defended the fort at the time "The Star Spangled Banner" was written are all gone. Most of them were borrowed from the French Government at the breaking out of the revolutionary war. The large smooth-bore guns that are now mounted at the fort were put in place in the Civil war.

YOUNG GIRL CUTS HER HAND.

Mabel Brown, aged 15 years, residing with her parents at 708 Twenty-ninth street, cut herself so severely last night that it was necessary to have the wound dressed at the Receiving Hospital.

The girl was preparing the evening meal and was paring some potatoes with a very sharp butcher knife when the knife slipped and was buried deep in the fleshy part of the left hand. Steward Borchert, who dressed the wound, found it necessary to take two stitches to bring the edges together.

YANGER CANNOT FIGHT.

LAME BACK PREVENTS HIM FROM TRAINING—MAY GET HERRERA.

It is highly improbable that the Yanger-Hanlon bout will be pulled off before the Hayes Valley Athletic Club next month. Manager Hertz has received dispatches and letters to the effect that Benny Yanger is not developing as fast as he should. Benny is still suffering with a lame back, acquired while he was in training to fight Hanlon before. It is said that the trouble is bothering him so much that he cannot train. Besides this, the hand he hurt in the bout with Hanlon is still pretty sore and troubles him considerably.

It was at first hoped that Jimmy Britt could be secured to take Yanger's place against Hanlon. But the California boy says he cannot make 130 pounds at the ringside, which Hanlon demands, so negotiations for a Hanlon-Britt match are as good as off.

Aurelia Herrera, the Mexican "dark horse" is another fighter who might be secured to go against Hanlon. The two are of about the same weight. Herrera is comparatively unknown in the boxing world, having but recently sprung into prominence by coming out victorious in six contests which lasted only three and four rounds each.

WILL SURRENDER ON CONDITION

DOCTOR WOODS IS IN HIDING, BUT WILL SOON GIVE HIMSELF UP.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Persons interested in the case announce "within a few days" Dr. John D. Woods and his wife, who are being sought in connection with the death of Colonel William J. Best at San Rafael, Cal., 1st April, will surrender to the prosecutor of Essex county, New Jersey. It is declared the doctor will make as a condition that the indictment for larceny of Colonel Best's jewelry against Dr. Woods in San Rafael is not to be used as a subterfuge to get him to California and then bring forth an indictment for murder. Woods is said to be in hiding Asbury Park. He has been reported seen dozens of times since the search began. Only a few days ago a member of the Best family, who had been actively pursuing the doctor, stated that he had seen him on a train near Asbury Park, but could not learn where his destination was." Interest in the case has gradually subsided.

STREET CARMEN MAY STRIKE.

SEATTLE, August 19.—The employes of the Seattle Electric Company may go on strike within the next twenty-four hours. They have made demands on the company for an increase in pay and other concessions, all of which have been turned down. Early this morning the employes are in session considering the matter of striking.

BODIES FOUND.

HANNA, Wyo., August 19. — Sixteen more bodies of victims of the mine explosion have been recovered and the work of the rescuers is nearly completed. All those taken out were in an advanced stage of decomposition.

WILL LEAVE FOR LOS ANGELES.

CHAMPION JEFFRIES PROPOSES TO VISIT HIS FAMILY FOR A WEEK.

Champion Jeffries leaves tomorrow to spend a week with his family in Los Angeles. He will have as companions on his trip south John Brink, "Chalk" Roberts and some other Los Angeles sports, and possibly Colonel W. Bradley. While visiting his folks, Jim will decide what he intends to do in the boxing line the next few months.

Jack Johnson has been in San Francisco the past few days trying to get a match with the premier heavy-weight. He appears quite put out because the champion refuses to take on any colored pugilists.

Said Johnson last night: "It seems rather late in the day for Jeffries to bar men of color. Up to date he has fought several negro heavyweights; among them being Hank Griffin, Peter Jackson and Bob Armstrong. I think I am entitled to a match with him."

Jeffries, however, positively refuses to battle with any of the colored gentry. The managers of the Yosemite Club yesterday endeavored to persuade him to box Sam McVey, the Oxnard negro, next November. Jeffries was so firm in his stand, however, against the colored race that there will probably be no championship heavy-weight fight that month, as the matchmakers seem unable to produce a suitable white opponent for the premier. Jeffries stated:

"When there are no white men left to fight I will quit the business. It may be that I can defeat all the colored heavyweights in sight with ease, but I am not going to try. I am determined not to take a chance of losing the championship to a negro."

It is rumored that H. J. J. Placke, the champion boxer of Holland, wants to meet the champion. The European if he is sincere, will probably come to this country in the near future to arrange a match with Jeffries. Placke is truly a giant. He stands six feet five and a half inches high and weighs 224 pounds, trained. The Dutchman is also besides being a prize fighter, a good all-round athlete. He is well known for his extraordinary strength and has won several medals in swimming and wrestling contests. A few years ago he wanted to meet Fitzsimmons and Sharkey, posting a $500 forfeit in London to bind the match.

Tom Sharkey and Tim Creighan, a burly Irishman managed by Sam Fitzpatrick, are among the white boxers who have expressed a desire to meet Jeffries.

ASSAULTED BY A CROWD OF RUFFIANS.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Policeman Joseph Buchelt of the Williamsburg district in Brooklyn, was assaulted early today by a crowd of ruffians, who stabbed him in the back and so badly injured him that he probably will die.

Buchelt had ordered a crowd of young men, who were standing on a corner to disperse. When they jeered in reply he threw his night stick at them. He seized one man as a prisoner, but was thrown down by the crowd. When he regained his feet and attempted to draw his revolver they seized his hands and held them to his side.

He struggled frantically to get away and several times broke loose. In the next instant, however, the crowd closed in on him again and dashed his uniform to shreds. At the hospital five wounds were found in his back. The men escaped.

YOUTH FALLS ON HAY FORK.

SUSTAINS FRACTURE OF TWO RIBS, A BROKEN ARM AND NUMEROUS BRUISES.

LIVERMORE, August 19.—Roger Nissen met with a serious accident recently, which came near being fatal.

The young man was engaged in hauling hay from his father's farm to one of the Livermore warehouses. In piling the hay on his wagon he fell to the ground, a distance of thirty-five feet, on to a pair of hay hooks. The hooks pierced his side, but were prevented from penetrating his lungs by striking his ribs, two of which were fractured. His right arm was broken at the wrist and he sustained numerous bruises.

Nissen arose to his feet, but fell immediately, with the blood gushing from his nose and mouth. He was taken to Dr. Taylor's office, where his wounds were attended to.

Mr. Nissen was to have left this week to resume his studies in the Stanford University, where he is a junior in the engineering department, but it will be some time before he can get about and several months before he can use his right hand.

DIED IN NAPA.

Michael Rogers, who was committed to the Napa asylum a few months ago, died there recently. Mr. Rogers had been ailing for a long time. He leaves a widow and a brother.

FIRE IN HEATING PLANT.

A fire broke out at the oil heating plant of DeCamp & Mosher, in the western outskirts of town, recently, causing a great deal of excitement. It is supposed that the fire started from a leaky point in the oil-feed pipe in the furnace. It communicated to the wooden shed covering the engine, which was consumed. The firemen were unable to get close enough to extinguish the fire for fear of the boiler exploding. The only damage, however, was the burning of the shed and the melting of a few brass fittings of the engine.

TO ERECT NEW THEATER.

Plans have been completed for a new theater and office building to be erected shortly by John Sweeney & Son. The construction will be submitted to bids as soon as the specifications are completed, which will be in a few days.

DIES OF CONSUMPTION.

John M. Warth, an old resident of this section, died Friday morning of consumption at the residence of his brother, Harrison Warth.

Mr. Warth was over 65 years old and a native of Indiana. He came to California in 1848 and located in this valley about thirty years ago. He leaves four children, William, John and Burton Warth, and Mrs. Annie Harvey.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in Feidler & Graham's undertaking parlors.

PETER NISSEN DEAD.

Peter Hansen Nissen, aged 70 years, died here recently from a complication of diseases incident to old age.

Mr. Nissen was a native of Denmark, having come to the United States in 1885, locating in this valley. He purchased a small farm on the Arroyo Valle several years later and made it his home up to the time of his death.

Deceased leaves two daughters, Mrs. A. Boyer and Mrs. John Block and two sons, Peter T. and Nils C. Nissen.

The funeral was held under the auspices of Dannevang, No. 7, Dania Society.

TO REMARRY WIFE OF HIS YOUTH.

Today William Dorsey and his former wife, Annie, will be remarried. More than twenty years ago the same rite was celebrated by them. They were young then but now they are middle-aged. Dorsey left his young wife and three small children to seek a fortune. Years went by. His letters became less frequent and finally stopped altogether. Nothing was heard from him in nearly twenty years. He had traveled in foreign lands and dug for the dull gold and the hidden diamond.

A short time ago he returned. His baby girls had grown into women and time had left its impress on the young wife. She, however, was unmarried. After years of waiting, alternating between hope and fear, she went into the courts and was granted a decree of divorce but she never married. Dorsey has made satisfactory explanations of his conduct and a license has been issued reading William Dorsey, aged 48, San Francisco and Annie Dorsey, aged 40, Oakland.

WOULD PROBATE WILL OF SOPHIE G. RIEHN.

Petition for the probate of the will of Sophia G. Riehn, who died in Santa Rosa August 12, was filed for probate today by Charles C. Volberg of Alameda. The estate is valued at $3,500 and is in trust for her son, who is an inmate of the Feeble Minded Home at Glen Ellen. Volberg is named as executor of the will. In case of young Riehn's death the property is to go to Volberg.

SONS OF VETERANS.

The meeting of Colonel E. D. Baker by Camp No. 1, last Tuesday evening will be long remembered by those who were fortunate enough to attend. Three recruits were mustered in. Division Chaplain E. B. Cushman of Long Beach was present as were many "old timers." A special committee was selected to assist the G. A. R. in receiving and entertaining the visiting guests to our city on Friday. The tickets for the social and dance to be given September 29 are out and a successful entertainment is assured. After the business of the camp was concluded the boys were invited to partake of refreshments served by the ladies of Lyon Relief Corps and Post in the large hall. All did ample justice to the repast.

PREPARING FAIR EXHIBIT.

MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE WANTS HELP OF FARMERS AND MANUFACTURERS.

The matter of preparing an exhibit of Alameda products for the State Fair that opens at Sacramento shortly was the subject of chief importance discussed at a meeting of the Merchants' Exchange last night. With an appropriation of $500 made by the Board of Supervisors for this purpose went the promise of the Merchants' Exchange to see that the money was judiciously expended and that a creditable exhibit should be made.

To this end the Exchange has employed A. D. Pryal and Cragie Sharp to go over the county and look to securing promises for exhibits of cereals, manufactured goods, vegetables, canned products, and, in fact, anything that will aid in displaying the resources of Alameda county. The Exchange also appeals to the public-spirited individuals and large organized industries to help this move along by contributing to this exhibit.

It was announced that the railway would transport exhibits free of charge to and from the fair and the only expense falling on exhibitors would be whatever advertising matter they wished to give out.

In this connection Superintendent Sanders of the Blind Home told of the benefit this institution had received from making exhibits at the local fairs held in Oakland the last two years. One or two of their departments had more than they could attend to and he was turning business away rather than promise work and then disappoint customers. He however assured the Exchange and Messrs. Pryal and Sharp that a creditable exhibit would be sent from the Home.

The headquarters of the committee having the matter in charge will be in the Merchants' Exchange rooms in the Central Bank building and any inquiries or communications will receive prompt attention.

In making a report of what work had already been accomplished towards securing promises of exhibits, Pryal and Sharp stated that they had visited the office of the Realty Syndicate in San Francisco and in all probability they would be able to get a car load of plants and palms. From the University they had been promised specimens of native flax, hemp, cereals and tobacco. The wire works, tanneries, basket factory and Blind Home had promised exhibits. Today they will go down the county as far, if possible, as Niles with a view to getting products of all kinds.

Special stress was laid by Pryal on the fact that farmers from all over the county should contribute of their best towards this exhibit. Notice sent to the Merchants' Exchange by any one having an exhibit will receive instructions as to the directions to be placed upon it and the railway will take it to Sacramento free of charge. At the station there the fair authorities will take charge and see that they are delivered to the proper sections. Minor details as to space, etc., were touched upon, but the thing of first importance, it was stated, was the getting together of an exhibit. Secretary Wilbur Walker, it was suggested, could go to Sacramento within the next few days and see that Alameda county had sufficient space for its display.

Secretary Walker and Director Jonas, reporting for the Tunnel Committee, reported that word had been received that by next Saturday daylight would extend its rays beneath the mountain from Alameda to Contra Costa and that the contractors promised that the work should be completed by September 9th, the day set for its dedication.

DAUGHTERS WANT PROPERTY BACK.

Suit has been instituted by Mary, Lillian and Maud, the three daughters of Colonel P. A. Finigan of Berkeley, to recover a valuable piece of property at Haste and Ellsworth streets. The property was deeded by the girls to secure George N. Williams and James P. Sweeney for a $500 fee charged by them as attorneys for their father in securing a divorce for him from his second wife.

It is alleged by the daughters of Finigan that they have tendered Williams and Sweeney the cash for their services, but that they refuse to take the money and deed back to them the land.

Finigan amassed a fortune in the booming days of the Comstock. Dark days came to him later and he was forced into bankruptcy.

Prior to the bankruptcy proceednigs he deeded all of his property to his three daughters. The creditors of Finigan have had the property tied up in the courts for years, but recently the Supreme Court decided the transfer was legal and the daughters are now clearing their title to the lands.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The K. of P. lodges of District No. 9, consisting of Live Oak, No. 17, Oakland, No. 103, Piedmont, No. 172, Dirigo, No. 224, and San Leandro, No. 234, will hold a district meeting on Wednesday evening, August 26 at their Castle Hall, Twelfth and Franklin streets. Supreme Prelate Judge George E. Church will be the speaker of the evening. All other lodges have been invited to be present and a rousing reception will no doubt be the result.

Piedmont Lodge, No. 172, will confer the Page rank upon a stranger at the next regular meeting. Members of the order are cordially invited to be present.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY.

The Alameda County Epworth League Alliance is to hold its quarterly rally Thursday evening in the Eighth Avenue Methodist Church. The evening's program will begin at 6 o'clock, when the assembled company will sit down to a supper, during which table talks will be given by Assemblyman W. H. Waste, W. A. Kling and Rev. D. L. Potter. The Rev. E. P. Dennett will preside.

Following the supper an entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock, which will include introductory exercises, an address by Rev. Clarence Reed of California Street Methodist Church, whose subject will be "The New Eworth League"; an address by Rev. H. E. Milnes of Santa Clara on "Methodism: An Enduring Message."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

INFORMAL TEA GIVEN BY MISS SEVILLA HAYDEN—OTHER NOTES

Miss Sevilla Hayden was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a delightfully informal tea in honor of Miss Ruth Kales and Miss Arlin Johnson, who will leave soon for an extended visit East. The Hayden residence on Madison street was tastefully decorated with a profusion of flowers. About seventy of the hostess' young friends enjoyed the affair.

Assisting Miss Hayden were her sister, Mrs. J. Maxwell Taft, Miss Rose Kales, Miss May Coogan, Miss Lucretia Burnham, Miss Elsa Schilling, Miss Katherine Kuts, Miss Josephine Johnson and Miss Chrissie Taft.

Miss Kales was the guest of honor also at a small luncheon and matinee party given last Saturday by A. Schilling, his guests including six of Miss Kales' young friends.

BERKELEY WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Pearl Cartwright and Lieutenant William D. Graham of the Twentieth Infantry, United States Army, will take place Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the First Congregational Church, Berkeley. It will be a military wedding with the army guests in full regalia and decorations in the national colors.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William F. Dade of the Pacific Theological Seminary. Miss Blanche Cartwright, sister of the bride-elect, is to be the only bridesmaid and Lieutenant Fry of the Thirteenth Infantry of Alcatraz is to be the groomsman. The ushers will be Lieutenants Watkins and Stewart of the Fifteenth Infantry and Lieutenants C. E. Brigham and E. H. Shinkle of the Presidio Artillery Corps.

After the ceremony a wedding supper will be served at the home of the bride-elect, 2214 Channing way. To this function have been invited a large number of guests. The honeymoon will be spent on the Pacific Coast and in the East, after which the bride and groom will go to reside at Fort Sheridan, Illinois.

Lieutenant Graham will entertain his groomsman and the ushers at a dinner Friday night in San Francisco.

Miss Cartwright is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Cartwright and the late J. C. Cartwright of Oregon. She has traveled a great deal and while in the Philippines two years ago met Lieutenant Graham, who was then attached to the Fifteenth Infantry.

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints.

It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint. Scrofula is bred in the home, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old, and spread rapidly over her body. The disease next attacked the eyes and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent. It was then that we decided to try S. S. S. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.
MRS. RUTH BERKLY,
100 South 5th Street. Salina, Kan.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. The deposit of tubercular matter in the joints and glands is carried off as soon as the blood is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, eruptions and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear.

SSS

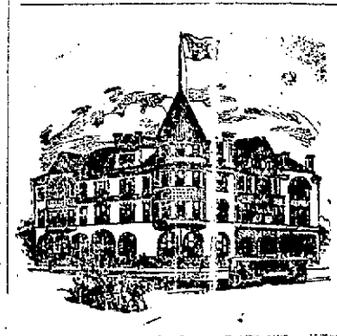

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and harmless; an ideal blood purifier and tonic that removes all blood taint and builds up weak constitutions. Our physicians will advise without charge, all who write us about their case. Book mailed free.

SOME ODIOUS COMPARISONS.

The irregularities and peculations recently exposed in the Postoffice Department have served as a text for a deal of vapid preaching and shallow theorizing. It is assumed that the disclosures prove men to be more corrupt in political life than in business life and that the public business cannot be managed with the efficiency and honesty that characterize the conduct of private enterprises. Are the assumptions correct, or are they grounded on mere suppositions?

Let us compare, for instance, the Eppinger failure with the trouble in the Postoffice Department. There was more loss and actual swindle in the conduct of the grain business of Eppinger & Co., than in all the frauds in the Postal Department. The methods of the firm were more unbusinesslike than anything exposed with respect to the postal business.

Does this prove that men in business life are ordinarily dishonest? Is the Eppinger failure not expressive of exceptional methods and an exceptional standard of honesty in the business world? By the same token, are not the irregularities exposed in the Postal Department of a highly exceptional character?

Shall we argue that the Eppinger crash is proof that the business of buying, storing and shipping grain cannot be safely entrusted to private firms?—that it is something that ought to be done as a public enterprise?

It is argued that acting for the Government or the State has a tendency to corrupt morals and promote dishonesty. Is not peculation equally as rife in private business life as it is in public office? Fiduciary agents of the public occasionally embezzle money; so do bank cashiers, trustees and financial agents in private life. For every county or municipal treasurer that steals a counterpart can be found in private business circles. It would be impossible to conceive of the affairs of a public business being more loosely conducted than was the business of Eppinger & Co.

Because some grain dealers return false weights to their customers and some commission merchants make false returns to consignors, it must not be assumed that the grain dealing and commission business is a failure in private hands or that participating in it promotes dishonesty.

Would not the same men steal if they had the chance in public office or out of it? Is it not the man rather than politics or the character of the business in which he is engaged that is responsible for theft and corruption?

It has become a fashion with a certain class of publications and press writers to assume that the moral standard is lower in political than in the other walks of life; and it is undeniable that this representation has made considerable impression on the popular mind. But do the facts bear it out? What is giving short weight and selling adulterations and inferior articles, under false labels, but the same sort of dishonesty that is involved in passing counterfeit money? We see reputable business men making no scruple of stealing patents if they can do so safely; we see trade marks pirated and advantages taken that are morally no better than blackmail. Is cheating in politics any worse than cheating in trade? For every rascally device practiced in politics are there not a score practiced in business life?

And when we come down to it, is not the standard of honesty in public life the reflex of the standard of honesty in private life?—the standard of morality that prevails in the community in the mass? Politics do not make men dishonest; men make politics dishonest. And the same men will make anything they touch dishonest.

Justice Brewer, of the Federal Supreme Court, does not agree with the contention of Chief Justice Loree, of Delaware, that laws are perfect and courts infallible. On the contrary, he says the laws are faulty and admits that courts are often derelict. The unrestricted right of appeal in criminal cases causes great laxity in judicial procedure and produces a system of expensive delays that defeats the ends of justice and wears out the public patience. Appeals in capital cases are now regularly taken merely to stave off execution. Justice Brewer does not hold to the theory that a speedy trial is an injustice to the accused. The law not only contemplates a speedy trial, but actually commands it. Justice suffers if important cases are postponed simply because the judge wants to go fishing or one of the attorneys wants to try another case in another court. The administration of justice should not be made a matter of private profit or personal convenience.

Now that Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson has become a candidate for Congress, he will have to be careful or he will be kissed off the track.

THE KAISER'S MILITARY PLANS.

A dispatch from Berlin says the German Kaiser is still bent on his pet project of increasing the strength of the army and enlarging the navy. How he expects to carry through his military measures in the face of the resolute opposition to the Social Democrats is difficult to see. He has no party behind him, the Conservative and National liberal elements having nearly disappeared from the Reichstag, and must depend upon a coalition of the Clericals, Agrarians, Conservatives and other detached elements to carry any affirmative policy.

The Social Democrats constitute by far the most cohesive and consistent division in the Reichstag. Although numerically weaker than the Centrists or Clericals, they are far stronger in point of popular backing and possess the advantage of having a well-settled policy and a thorough organization. Their leadership is also the ablest in the German Empire. No man in the German Parliament approaches Herr Bebel, the Social leader, in intellectual power and political astuteness.

At all points the Social Democrats are opposed to the imperial policy of the Kaiser, but they have three cardinal principles on which they are united and aggressive. First, they demand a system of local self-government. Second, the abolition of the standing army and the substitution of a national militia. Third, the abolition of the protective tariff with its system of bounties and the substitution of free trade or a revenue tariff.

It is needless to say that these propositions are regarded as revolutionary by the Emperor and his advisers. Nevertheless, they received the unqualified endorsement of more than forty per cent of the electors who cast ballots at the late election. The total poll was about 7,500,000 and a little over 3,000,000 ballots were cast for the Social Democratic candidates. Less than sixty per cent of the electors were divided among all the other political divisions and by an unjust and unequal system of appointment this sixty per cent returned more than three-fourths the entire membership of the Reichstag. Yet the growing power of the compact and aggressive minority is sensibly affecting opinions in the national legislature.

All the great cities of the empire, Berlin, Hamburg, Munich, Dresden, Leipsic, Breslau, and Bremen, have returned Social Democratic delegations. Even the intense Catholic city of Munich has been captured from the Clericals. In the rural districts, hitherto, the strongholds of the Clericals and the Agrarians, the Socialists made impressive gains. They are challenging the church and the imperial system in their own citadels.

With matters in this posture it is difficult to see how the Kaiser can expect to carry through his scheme of adding two army corps to the regular military establishment. He desires to increase the fighting strength by 39,000 men and also to increase the naval establishment by several thousand men. The Socialists object to this program on three several grounds—first, the expense; second, the withdrawing of so many young men from productive employment; and third, increasing the Kaiser's coercive power and stimulating his martial designs. Germany is growing weary of militaryism, with its heavy taxes, arrogance, brutality and injustice and it is even more thoroughly disgusted with the stupidity and medieval pretensions of the hereditary aristocracy with whom the Kaiser surrounds himself and from whom he draws his advisers. Under the German constitution the Kaiser alone chooses the ministry and selects the officers of the army, but the Reichstag controls the purse strings, levies taxes and dictates how the money shall be spent. When the popular forces gain control of the Reichstag, the Emperor will become a creature of the popular will. His war lordship will depend upon how much money his subjects will vote to maintain it, and the Junker aristocracy will have to give way in the public service to a more representative and more intelligent class of men. In other words, democracy will rule, as it is ruling in England, France and the United States.

Bryan's latest nominee for President is Senator Cockrell, of Missouri. Senator Cockrell is a good man, but his record as a Confederate soldier is against him. No man can be elected President who fought against the Union. And the Democratic party will never nominate a man with this record. Bryan had better shift around to Miles.

In Ireland and Scotland as well as England opposition is being developed against what is called the "Jewish invasion." Until comparatively recent years there were very few Jews in either Ireland or Scotland, and those few were traders. It was the generally accepted belief that the thrifty Scotch could successfully defy any sort of competition. But latterly there has been a large influx of Jews from Eastern Europe. These immigrants are not merchants, but are handicraftsmen. They are rapidly elbowing the Scots out of the business of making clothing. They are turning small shopkeepers, and are thus arousing feeling on both sides of the Irish sea. The trades unions are organizing to bring pressure on the government to restrict foreign immigration. Already popular sentiment has become quite heated on the subject.

WELCOME "G. A. R." VETERANS.
BY J. W. DUTTON.

Full forty long eventful years
  Have winged their weary flight,
Since you, as boys, first donned the blue
  To battle for the Right.

What then was Future, now is Past,
  The Morrow, Yesterday.
Youth's happy moments will not last—
  And time speeds swift away.

The silvering hair, the stooping form,
  The slowly dimning eye;
Results of life's protracted storm,
  Proclaim the end is nigh.

You've met again, but ah, your ranks
  Have thinned; the friends of yore
Are absent; they have pitched their tents
  Upon the other shore.

To you, to-day, brave veterans—
  Grand men who saved the State!
The city by the sundown sea
  Now opens wide her gate.

FIGHTING THE MISSISSIPPI.

The power in the lower Mississippi flood is morethan ten times the power of Niagara; and it may be assumed that it will take its own course down its alluvial valley. Turned and looped on the incline, the river has worked out a course about a thousand miles long and a mile wide, and in this it rises and falls about fifty feet between its low and high waters. The whole course is an area of drifting sands and caving banks that shift with the changing flow continually.

There is but one known way to fix all this, and that is to regulate the flow, for a fixed flow will work out for itself a fixed channel in any alluvial valley. Other improvements may be possible, but their works will have more than fifty million horse-power to reckon with, and so far the millions put into improving the river have had no real effect on it. The reservoir system would weaken the stupendous power of the river from above; and this is just what is needed.

Nothing seems more absurd than to try to fight the river only near its mouth, where its whole strength must be encountered. The force of the river has to be broken by attacking it further up. Reservoirs at several points would hold enough water in captivity to render the lower levees superfluous.—J. A. Seddon, C. E., in the World Today.

AS A LAXATIVE

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is without an equal. It will not gripe nor shock the system, and make you feel sick all over like most cathartics do, but has a firm and gentle effect on the constipated bowels, stimulating and assisting them in the proper performance of their functions. Then an occasional dose is all that is needed to keep the bowels regular, and the stomach strong. A trial will convince you of its value.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

Hints for the Ladies.

An imported gown of eseda velvet, the skirt of which is trimmed with bands of broadcloth in the same shade. The blouse blouse bodice has a odice of blouse bodice has a trimming of Persian embroidery, and is made to close on the left side. It is shirred over the shoulders, the shirring extending to the sleeves, which are very full. The yoke and the undersleeves are full of white lace over pale-green silk, and the top of the collar is of the same.

Cloth and shiffon seem an incongruous combination, yet they are occasionally made to harmonize perfectly. A plum-colored cloth gown is described, with bodice and voluminous sleeves of chiffon of the same shade, both being trimmed with applications of leaves, formed of the cloth. Plum color, by the way, is to be much seen in the autumn. It is one of the colors peculiarly suited to be worn with rich-hued autumn. Like brown and crimson, it ones in with the season.

The fashionable fur next season, say the importers, will be mole. Already it is fashionable in Europe and American furriers have placed immense orders for it. Moleskin makes up well and wears as well as squirrel, while in effect it is far handsomer. It has a rich, shaded look, changing from light to dark, making it both handsome and becoming. Ermine will be almost twice as expensive as it was last winter, the catch having been small and the demand for it large.

Waists cut with the low, round or Dutch necks are finished with a lace edge or fine embroidery put on plain or flat. Above this is tied a scarf of white tulle, knotted at the left side, with a string of pearls close about the neck. These waists are sometimes worn on the street by women who have firm, fair throats, but they are more appropriate for the house.

Be very careful about the length of your round skirts. Do not on any account allow the slightest dipping at the back, which is very apt to occur. On the contrary, most of these measure just the least bit less at the back than in front. It is easy to see the reason of this when we remember that everything tends to length in front and shortness at the back nowadays.

A new weave of silk is called pointille because it has a raised dot in white or color upon a back ground and the same design is repeated always with a contrast in other webs of the silk. A black dot on white is a showy specimen of the pointille. The dot is only slightly raised, not so much as to give it the effect of being embossed, but just a slight rise in the weaving—enough to show off the dot of brilliant china white or of whatever color be chosen. This makes a suitable church costume when properly made.

WHEN TO SEEM BLIND.

Some daughter of Eve must have been making faces at the Reflector of Greenville, N. C., or else the Reflector's study of the sex has not been prolific of knowledge. It exclaims: "When a girl wears a shirt waist that a blind man can see through, she gets sore about it if you notice it." The unsophistication of the North Carolinian borders on the pathetic. Of course there was a transparency, but who asked him to "notice it." The impertinent thing! The Greenville Reflector should assume the part of the mendicant who counterfeits blindness; he receives alms from the passer-by and sees, but he does not "notice;" he has eyes, but he must be blind.—Richmond State.

TAKE ANOTHER MORNING NAP.

If you are addicted to the morning nap habit, but have hesitated to indulge in it for fear of remarks from the family circle on the subject of laziness, you may hereafter take that little snooze in peace, reflecting that in its enjoyment you are guilty of no moral offense. For an ingenious scientist has discovered that an extra hour's sleep daily will in one year amount to a saving of two and half pounds of fat. So, you see, it is the need of saving flesh and not original sin that prompts one to lie in bed mornings. It is an effort on the part of nature to repair a waste of fatty tissues occasioned by mental or physical strenuousness.—Boston Transcript.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

It's awfully exasperating the way a shirtwaist loks as if it were going to tell everything, but stops short off right at the most interesting part.

It takes a woman to be too busy to darn a pair of stockings because she is making some underclothes to go with a new pair when she gets them.

Just when a woman thinks her husband is being impressed with a sermon is generally the time he is thinking what a difference it would have made if he had filled that flush the night before.

TRIED TO KILL HIS WIFE.

AN ALAMEDA MAN MAKES ATTACK ON HIS WIFE.

ALAMEDA, August 19.—Harry Gardener, a consumptive, 55 years old, attempted to murder his wife Sunday evening by attacking her with a carving knife.

Gardener, who was formerly employed by the municipal street department, has been lying ill at his home at 2121 San Antonio avenue for nine months. His wife has carefully nursed him through this period.

Sunday night, while his wife was sleeping in an apartment adjoining his, Gardener arose from his bed, secured a carving knife and went into her room. He crept cautiously up to the bed and stabbed her several times in the head. Mrs. Gardener tried to get the knife from him, but the frenzied man held on. Finally his strength failed him and he fell to the floor in a dead faint.

Mrs. Gardener called for assistance and her head was dressed and bandaged. This morning she complained to the police and requested that her husband be removed from their home, but refused to swear to any charge against the sick man. She believes that his mind has become unbalanced through worry over his enfeebled condition and says that she will endeavor to have him placed in some public institution where he can be closely guarded.

HOW SCOTS KEEP "SAWBATH."

Senator Francis Hendricks of Rochester and ex-Senator Frank Hiscock of New York were completing the arrangements for the Syracuse fair, and, while talking to some reporters about the advisability of keeping the fair open on Sunday, Senator Hendricks said:

"I am glad that in America a certain strictness regarding the observance of Sunday is maintained. I believe in this strictness. I should hate, though, to see it carried as far as the Scots carry it.

"A friend of mine was touring in Scotland last summer. One Sunday morning he put his little hammer in his pocket (for he is an amateur geologist), and, strolling out upon the hills, he began to chip off such specimens of rock as interested him.

"A native happened along as my friend was thus engaged. The native looked on with a frown for a moment. Then he said:

"'Sir, do ye ken yer breakin' more than stones there?'

"'Breakin' the Sabbath, eh?' said my friend with a laugh, and, to appease the Scot, he put away the hammer and walked onward a little way with him. A turn of the road revealed the ruins of a castle.

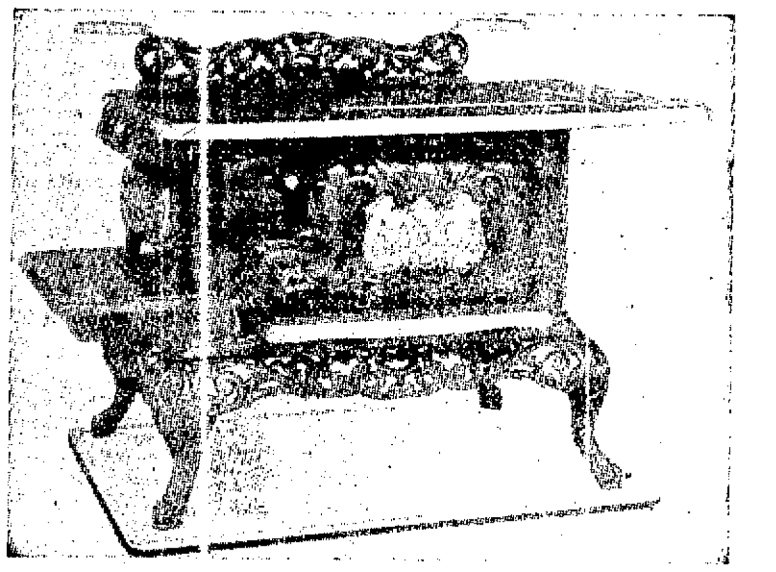

"'What castle is that?' said my friend.

"The Scot frowned. 'It's noo' the day,' he said, severely, 'to be speirin' sic things.'"

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL IN SESSION.

Barkeepers Hold Weekly Meeting—Machinists and Retail Drivers Discuss Union Matters.

ALLIED PRINTING TRADES UNION LABEL COUNCIL OAKLAND, CAL.

At the meeting of the Building Trades Council last night it was decided to issue a sub-charter to the Newsboys' Union. There was considerable talk upon the subject of disciplining certain unions that have not yet reported their intention o parade, but definite action has been delayed to give them an opportunity to line-up with the majority.

At its meeting Sunday last, the State Building Trades Council placed the adjustment of minor details in relation to settlement of the Hooper Mills in the hands of Business Agent Bowen of this council, and this was done upon promise by officials from the affected locality that only union labor would be employed. It now develops that all the agreements will not be adhered to by the mill people, and, therefore, settlement of the difficulty will be delayed, which fact union men will take note and govern themselves accordingly.

BARTENDERS.

If any of the members of this body were not present at the Bartenders' Union meeting last night it was because they were on watch. Business went through with a rush. Four members were initiated and twelve new applications were received. "New" is used advisedly, because there are a number of applications that have been acted upon at past meetings, the signers of which have not yet presented themselves for initiation, and these are to come up for consideration at the next meeting. The applicants had better hurry and join the union. A special meeting of the union has been called for 8 p. m., September 1st, and it will cost each member who does not attend $5 in the way of fine. Applications that will lapse about that date, with other important subjects are to be considered. House cards were issued fifteen houses during the past ten days and six additional houses have applied for them. Action is soon to be taken on places not displaying cards, and the sanction of the Federated Trades will be sought.

MACHINISTS, NO. 284.

This union will parade its full strength on Labor Day and will be joined by Industrial Lodge, No. 61, and by the Apprentices' Union. The latter will be in uniform. The handsome new banner of No. 284 will be in the line. Routine business mostly occupied the attention of the meeting held at California Hall last night. A donation was made to the linemen, and a delegation was received from the Newsboys' Union, asking for the moral support of the machinists. Steady growth in membership is noted and Union No. 284 is in a flourishing condition.

RETAIL DRIVERS.

Nearly all of the members of No. 614 were on hand at the meeting held at California Hall last night, and the proceedings were made very interesting by the presence of delegations from the District Council of Teamsters, from the Newsboys' Union and from the linemen. Five members were initiated and applications received from seven who want to be members. This union took and will dispose of a big bunch of tickets for the linemen's benefit at the Chutes. The membership will be increased materially in the near future, it is expected, by the drivers who are now affiliated with the Retail Clerks' Union and by the Hardware Drivers. Everything is running along smoothly between employer and employee and the union requests that the public ask all drivers delivering to them to show their cards. This union will parade with Teamsters' Union, No. 70, on Labor Day.

FEDERATED TRADES.

There was present at the meeting of the Federated Trades last night a delegation from the Actors' Union of San Francisco, which had called to consider with the council the matter of putting a "play-house" of this city on the unfair list. The matter will be investigated by the proper officers and report made and decision given at a later meeting.

Consideration of the Judson Iron Works' strike was had, but no definite understanding reached. Another meeting with officials of the iron works will be had today and hopes are entertained of adjustment of the matters in dispute.

COOKS AND WAITERS.

Regular meeting of the Cooks and Waiters' Union was held yesterday afternoon at their headquarters on Eighth street. M. S. Medin was elected and installed treasurer of the organization to fill the vacancy created by the sudden vanishing of the former treasurer a couple of weeks since with $116 of the union's funds. It was decided to call a special meeting of this body for next Friday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon to make final arrangements for parade, fix the amount of fine for those who do not turn out on Labor Day and bring up to date several little things that could not be finally disposed of yesterday. The indications are that the restaurants will close on Labor Day from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., to allow the union to parade in full strength. One member was initiated, who came from Emeryville, and house cards have been applied for for the hotels in that embryo city and the matter taken under advisement. The Newsboys' Union had a delegation present.

STABLEMEN.

The gathering of stablemen at 4.3 Eighth street last night transacted business with dispatch and adjourned in time to permit its members to enjoy a full night's sleep. Seven applications for membership were received and three members initiated. Parade details were attended to and a delegation from the newsboys was heard.

NEWSBOYS.

President Oberlies and W. Jacobs of the Newsboys' Union visited all the bodies of unionists in session yesterday and last night, asking of them the moral support of their respective bodies for the newsboys' cause. They were well received and assurance given that the new brotherhood would receive fraternal consideration. Regular meeting of the newsboys Friday night.

LAUNDRY TRUST.

Within a few weeks, it is reported, all the steam laundries in San Francisco will be merged into one big corporation, and attorneys are busy drawing up the papers necessary to perfect the deal. Prices upon their plants have been set by the San Francisco, United States, Grand, Contra Costa, St. Nicholas, Cascade, Electric, White Star, Troy Empire, Eureka and Shasta laundries. The owners will in each case receive a portion of the purchase price in cash and the remainder in stock of the new corporation. When control is assumed by the syndicate a few of the smaller laundries will be closed down, but the larger ones will not be disturbed. Routes will be re-assigned and the number of collecting wagons be materially decreased. Barber shops and bootblack stands as collecting points will be done away with as far as possible, and the stockholders promise to materially reduce the rates now charged for laundry.

It is estimated that the laundries of that city do business to the amount of $200,000 a month, and many of them have branches here, the revenues from which help to swell the total. At present nothing is known as to what the capitalization of the new concern will be.

EXPECTS TO CLOSE.

Both sides expect to close their cases this week in the arbitration proceedings between the carmen and the United Railroads in San Francisco.

INCREASED SCHEDULE.

To date, from the 1st inst., passenger trainmen on the Pacific division of the Canadian Pacific Railway will receive an increase of approximately 12 per cent over the present scale and freight train operatives an increase of 15 per cent.

THE KIEFF TROUBLES.

The world was advised by the dispatches that matters had assumed their normal aspect in the disturbed districts in Southern Russia, and now comes news that fourteen strikers were killed and from 100 to 150 wounded in the military onslaught as late as the middle of this month. The troops fired volleys into the strikers at close quarters.

MINSTRELS COMING TO MACDONOUGH.

When the curtain first rises on the first part of the Richard J. Jose Minstrels which come to the Macdonough Theatre on Saturday and Sunday next, a remarkable novelty is revealed to the expectant audience, for in place of the stereotyped grove, grotto or fairy palace, a spectacle of unusual grandeur meets the eye. There in full view sit the minstrels, occupying the interior of a tapestried drawing room, resplendently strung with myriads of electrical embellishment, but minus the antiquated costumes of their predecessors. The Richard J. Jose performance is a full dress affair and its members receive their guests in their magnificent parlor clad in the attire of the American gentleman, the full evening dress suit. The effectiveness of this unique arrangement is barely realized until one is personally thrown before it. It prepares for the unusually high class character of the performance that is to follow. Coarse horse-play is eliminated from the entertainment entirely and a polite evening's enjoyment of good comedy, sparkling wit and delightful music is furnished. The company is headed by Richard J. Jose, the marvelous contra-tenor whose "nightingale" voice has delighted millions of the American public and who is ably seconded in the singing section by William McDonald, the phenomenal "Bostonian" basso; Tom Guise and William Lugg Thorne, leading baritones of the New York Musical Comedies; Arthur Tallesin, a Metropolitan Grand Opera Tenor; and the Jose Octette. The comedy is in the hands of William Keller Mack, Carl Cameron and other comedians of equal reputation. The olio is up to the same standard of excellence as the first portion of the performance and a clean, and healthy, as well as snappy entertainment is assured.

CAN SEND FLEET VERY QUICKLY.

ROME, August 19.—No other power is in a better position than Italy to quickly send a fleet to Turkey. In fact, Italy may be almost considered as already having a warship on the spot, as the torpedo-boat destroyer Minerva is off the island of Lemnos, a few hours sailing from Salonica, and the battleship Re Umberto, which is at Agosta, Sicily, can reach Ottoman waters in about forty-eight hours. The Italian Mediterranean squadron, now off Cagliari, Island of Sardinia, has been ordered to Sicily, so as to be nearer the scene of the trouble in Turkey.

MR. AND MRS. O. A. OLSEN.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Olsen, who were recently married, have taken a home in the northern part of the city. They have a great many friends.

SHE PLEADS TO HAVE HER BOY RETURN.

MRS. BETANCUE SAYS TWO MEN ARE CONSPIRING AGAINST HER.

Fearing that her 16-year-old son Frank Powers, has been kidnaped by his step-father, Mrs. J. P. Betancue of 566 Eleventh street has asked the police to locate the boy, who has been missing from home since last Sunday morning.

Last January Mrs. Betancue separated from her husband, who was engaged in the insurance business in Oakland and San Francisco, and last month she filed an application for a divorce on the ground of deserting and asked for alimony.

The boy's father, W. F. Powers, employed in the Oakland Cream Depot, was separated from his wife a number of years ago, she being awarded the custody of the child.

Last Sunday morning her son disappeared under circumstances that led Mrs. Betancue to believe that he has been enticed away by his step-father, or perhaps his father and step-father.

"They have both combined against me and seem determined to drag me down in the gutter," declared Mrs. Betancue referring to her husband and former husband.

"I believe that they have stolen my son Frank away from me, and that they are just doing it to drive me to my grave," continued the woman. "Last Sunday morning Frank put on his cap and left the house, and since then I have not seen him or heard from him, nor can the police get track of him.

"From what I can learn from the people in the neighborhood, Mr. Betancue has been seen talking to my son in my absence and they were seen together as late as last Saturday night, so I think that my boy has been enticed away.

"I notified the police and detectives brought Mr. Betancue to the City Prison, but he denied all knowledge of the whereabouts of the boy. The police searched for him, but couldn't find him.

"My son is not staying away from me through his own free will. He is being held by force, probably, or at least, with all sorts of promises. He is very fond of the country and it is there that I believe they have taken him.

"I cannot live without my boy and I am sure that I have not done anything to displease him. He is a good boy and has always been pleasant around the home. If there has been anything done to displease him I wish he would let me know, and I will try to correct any mistakes made. I want him to come home and I will do everything in my power to make it pleasant for him. He is my sole support, and if he goes back on me I do not care to live. Any one who has heard of my boy will confer a favor on me if they will tell me of his whereabouts, that I may have a few words of conversation with him."

SCHOOLMATES ATTEND MAYON'S FUNERAL.

With a number of his former schoolmates in attendance, the funeral services over the remains of 16-year-old James Ralph Mayon, son of Dr. J. L. Mayon, who died last Monday after a short illness, was held at 11 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 1069 Market street.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Bishop Whittaker of San Francisco and the Rev. Holme, rector of St. Paul's Church of this city.

Deceased was a pupil at the Oakland High School and the following of his classmates acted as pallbearers: William Roberts, Elton McNamara, George Davis, Steward Irwin, Frank Madden and Charles Dunham.

The remains were first cremated and then interred in Mountain View cemetery.

MAY HAVE A BREWERS' TRUST

NEW YORK, August 19.—Many recent conferences among brewers of Greater New York have given rise to a belief that a combination of all brewing interests is about to be formed. The immediate result of the consolidation would be to close several of the smaller breweries. There are about forty of these in Brooklyn alone. Another result would be the establishment of certain standard grades of beer and ale which will be sold at uniform prices in all saloons.

Brewers have been complaining that the keen competition in their business has been almost ruinous. There is hardly a brewery in New York that is turning out its full capacity.

"Besides over-competition," one brewer said, "the present excise law has cut down the business of all of us. About half the breweries today are having a hard struggle to exist."

MYSTERY AROUND PRIVATE'S DEATH.

SALT LAKE, Utah, August 19.—Elijah Lewis, aged 19, a private in the Twenty-second artillery, stationed at Fort Douglas, but now in camp near Provo, was shot and instantly killed in camp last night. Whether he was killed as a result of a quarrel between himself and G. W. Burden, a member of the same battery, who was the only witness to the shooting, or met death through the careless handling of a revolver, is not known. Burden is under arrest pending an investigation into the affair by a board of inquiry. He claims the shooting was accidental. Lewis enlisted in Kentucky.

NEGRO JOCKEY IS ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, August 19.—Jerry Hicks, the negro rider, under lease by a Southern firm of horsemen, who claims to hold a contract to Perry Belmont and John E. Madden, was arrested at midnight, according to special dispatches from Saratoga, upon an order of Judge Spence of the Fulton County Court.

He will be taken before the judge for trial of the suit brought by his father, a resident of Louisiana, to annul the boy's contract. Hicks' father receives $13 per month under the present agreement which is to run three years. It is said he wants more and for that reason desires to break the contract.

TRY FEEDING.

Instead of a Journey for Health.

The sick person has not exhausted all of his resources until he has tried the value of proper, pure, and scientifically made food.

It often happens that when medical skill has been exhausted a person thinks change of climate necessary. That's the time to change the food.

A big man in New York City whose normal weight is around the 230 pound mark had run down to 173 pounds. "I was so ill" he says, "that my doctor ordered me to go South but as I could not afford to go I hesitated, and then along came a friend who persuaded me to try the food Grape-Nuts.

"Am glad to say I did so for I gained back my lost 60 pounds and I now feel fine all the time, never felt better in all my life and that means I am well and strong, didn't have to go South, saved the money and am all right." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

This shows what a delicious food can do when it is pure and the right kind.

CHINESE TROOPS RESTORE ORDER

UNPAID TROOPS CAUSE CONSIDERABLE TROUBLE IN THE ORIENT.

NEW YORK, August 13.—At the request of Viceroy Shen, the Yangtse Viceroys recently sent a body of troops to assist in restoring order at Kwangsi, says a Peking dispatch to the Times by way of London. The administration of Shen is being characterized by remarkable activity and thoroughness. He has followed up the removal of the Governor, Wang Chin Chun, and Marshal Su, by punishing and removing from office many incapable and dishonest officials.

Information from trustworthy sources shows that the disturbances have not been caused by an anti-dynastic movement, but have been due principally to large numbers of unpaid troops during Su's regime joining the turbulent element of the population and organizing independent bands which preyed upon the trade of the province. Already there are signs that the Viceroy's vigorous policy is producing an effect. Bandit leaders have offered, in accordance with the usual Chinese custom, to discuss arrangements whereby their forces may take service under the Imperial Government.

Acting under the Taotai's general instructions the magistrate of the Nanhsu district, near Shanghai, has arrested four reformers charged with delivering public lectures contrary to the orders of the government.

PETITIONS FILED IN PROBATE COURT.

Petition for a final accounting in the matter of the estate of Massimo Andreani has been filed by Thomas J. Allen, as administrator of the estate. Andreani was the proprietor of a saloon at Fourteenth and Center streets and his estate is set forth to be worth $3,748.92. He left, surviving him, a widow and five children.

An amended complaint in a suit over a promissory note made by George H. Barrett, deceased, was filed today by attorney for Della McDonald, who alleges that she loaned deceased $527. She has mislaid the note and is unable to produce it and John Nicholl and O. E. Hotchkiss, as executors of the estate, have refused to allow the claim.

Petition for a final accounting in the matter of the estate of Christian Ruedi was filed with the County Clerk today. The estate consists of $592.68 in cash and lots at Poplar and West Sixteenth street and in the Searls tract in Brooklyn township, represented to be worth $900.

REV. HENSON MAY BE CALLED.

BOSTON, August 19.—The question of calling the Rev. Dr. P. S. Henson of Brooklyn, and formerly of Chicago, to the long-vacant pulpit of Tremont Temple, will doubtless be acted on at the meeting of the trustees early next month. A large number of the deacons and members of the congregation are said to favor the former Chicagoan. Rev. Dr. W. J. Williamson of St. Louis also is being considered.

CHANGES MADE IN RAILROAD

B. A. WORTHINGTON, C. J. WILDER AND AL BAKER PROMOTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—B. A. Worthington has finally been taken from the superintendency of the Southern Pacific's Coast division and given a place in Mr. Kruttschnitt's office. The following circular on the subject was issued late last evening under the signatures of Manager James Agler and Julius Kruttschnitt.

Mr. J. C. Wilder is hereby appointed Superintendent of the Coast Division, vice Mr. B. A. Worthington assigned to duty in office Assistant to President.

Mr. A. W. Baker is hereby appointed Assistant Superintendent of Western Division, vice Mr. J. C. Wilder, transferred.

Effective August 20, 1903.

It is not known what, if any, title Worthington is to have. He is to immediately assist Kruttschnitt. Worthington was recently offered the General Managership of the Denver and Fort Worth section of the Colorado Southern by H. E. Huntington. Kruttschnitt promised to give him a better place if he would stay with the Southern Pacific. That is the meaning of yesterday's change.

Wilder, who succeeds Worthington, has been Assistant Superintendent at Oakland, under W. S. Palmer, for several years. He is a brother of Assistant General Auditor C. J. Wilder and the late Superintendent A. D. Wilder of Oakland.

Mr. Baker was formerly chief clerk in the Superintendent's office at Oakland and is popular in railroad circles.

SCHOOL BOARD PRESSED TO FIND MORE ROOM.

Educators Find Solution to Problem by Voting to Purchase a Portable School House.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The question of finding room for the 400 additional school children who enrolled with the opening of the fall term, has proved a perplexing problem for the school authorities, who found a part al solution of the dilemma at the meeting of the Board of Education last evening when a portable school house was ordered to be placed in the Le Conte school site. Superintendent of Schools Waterman reported that the class rooms were so congested in the southern portion of the city that he was compelled to rent a room for class purposes in South Berkeley Hall.

"While the situation is a trying one this year," said Dr. W. W. Allen, the president of the Board, in recommending the purchase of a portable school house, "I do not believe that it is a circumstance to what it will be next year, coming to Berkeley."

The school directors in voting for a portable school house, had evidently taken their cue from the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church which erected a Sunday school in four days of last week, dedicating it the following Sunday.

There was a full membership of the Board present last evening. The school houses and sites committee was authorized to make necessary repairs on the San Pablo and McKinley schools.

A bill for $45.15 presented by S. H. Brown for extra painting on the Longfellow school was ordered to be cut to $30.

The following bids for an addition to the Whittier school were read: Philip Sheridan, $8,372; John E. Bigelow, $8,200; C. Christenson, $8,445. The work was awarded to contractor Bigelow, although his estimate exceeds the computed cost of the addition by $40.

Applications for teachers' positions were received from Miss Grace Sullivan Miss Nellie Bryant and Miss Helen Rosenberg.

Upon the recommendation of the finance committee, the following bills were ordered to be paid. C. D. Mohr, $2.50; R. W. Baker, $12.00; Hunter Lumber Company, 60c; Berkeley Gazette, $99.40; Cunningham, Curtis and Welch, $782.80; Cheney and Berry, $50; E. Ehret, $33.60; Charles Pfaff, $185.15.

Superintendent of Schools Waterman reported the enrollment at the various schools during the first two weeks of the term to be as follows:

Allston way, 192; Longfellow, 167; McKinley, 612; Le Conte, 398; Lincoln, 412; Whittier, 265; Rose street, 62; Hillside, 139; Grayson, 56; Commercial 65; Columbus, 229; Seventh street, 75; San Pablo avenue, 211; Page street, 34; High School, 605. Total, 3,526.

Upon the statement of Director Sutherland and Principal Elmer E. Nichols of the Lincoln School, it was decided to elect an additional teacher for the school. After four ballots had been taken, Miss Lillian M. Bowland was declared to be the choice of the board for the place.

The Mothers' club was granted permission to use one of the rooms in the San Pablo avenue school. During the session of the club it was decided to place the school in charge of one of the teachers.

Quite a lengthy discussion was indulged in by the members of the Board and Miss Amy M. Badger, who claims that she had not been fully paid for substituting for Mrs. Clara Partridge in the McKinley school last year. No action was taken on the matter after Miss Badger had called into question the statement made by the school superintendent, Principal Charles L. Biedenbach and several members of the Board relative to the terms of her engagement.

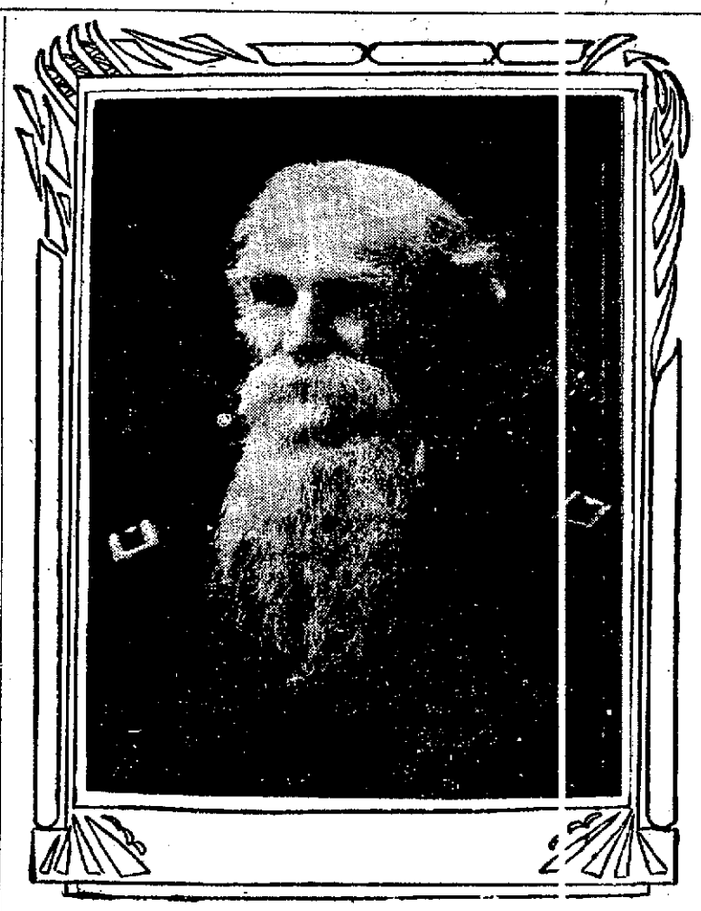

The clerk was directed to call the attention of the telephone company to the fact that several of the lines between the various schools are out of order and that no money will be paid for the use of the instruments until they are placed in order.

The supply committee was given authorization to place clocks and thermometers in the rooms where they are needed.

Andrew Pierce, chemistry teacher at the High School, was allowed an assistant who will be chosen from the list of young men who are compelled to pay tuition on account of non-residence.

The sum of $50 was allowed for the purchase of models for use in the High School drawing room. Miss Nellie Bryant was a teacher for two periods in drawing at one-third the regular salary.

After the chairman of the finance committee and the president of the board had been appointed to confer with the Board of Equalization as to fixing the school tax for the year, an adjournment was taken.

FIND PLACE FOR LOUNGING.

RIVAL OF NORTH HALL STEPS OPENED IN BASEMENT OF STILES HALL.

BERKELEY, August 19.—A new lounging place which is destined to take the place of the historic steps of North Hall has been fitted up under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in the basement of Stiles Hall. For a long period the men of the University have been looking for some comfortable place where the students might rest during leisure hours. While several suggestions for such a place have been made from time to time nothing tangible was ever done until the Y. M. C. A. took hold of the project.

As soon as possible the walls of the place are to be lined with burlap and decorated with posters typical of the college life. Current magazines and papers will be kept on file and the quarters will be made comfortable in every possible way.

Light luncheons will be served the students under the caterership of Charles Ennes.

Captain and Mrs. J. R. Oakley have returned from an extensive hunting and fishing trip in Mendocino county.

NOTED SCIENTIST AT U. C.

PROF. WILHELM OSTWALD WILL BE ENTERTAINED AT BERKELEY.

BERKELEY, August 19. — Professor Wilhelm Ostwald, who is coming from the University of Leipsic, Germany, to deliver the dedication address for the University of California physiological laboratory, arrived here this morning. A dinner will be given in his honor Wednesday evening by Dr. M. Herzstein of San Francisco. On Thursday he will be the guest of President and Mrs. Wheeler at luncheon, and there will meet a number of official personages. On Thursday evening a dinner will be given in his honor by Professor and Mrs. Jacques Loeb. On Friday Professor Loeb will give a luncheon at the University Club of San Francisco. Friday night he is a guest of honor of the San Francisco Chemical Society. During the following week he will be a guest of honor at a dinner given by the University Club of San Francisco. At the dedication exercises in the gymnasium at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon Professor Ostwald will deliver an address on the occasion of the dedication of the new physiological laboratory.

Professor Ostwald was born in Riga September 2, 1853. He studied physics and chemistry at the University of Dorpat, now officially known as Jurjow, and situated in the Russian provinces. Here he "habilitated," that is, became one of the regular instructing staff, in 1878. A few years later he was called to the Technische Hochschul (Polytechnic Institute) in Riga as ordentlicher professor (full professor). Here he remained until called to Leipsic in 1887. The University of Heidelberg had been the first, in 1864, to create a chair of physical chemistry, but Kopp, who filled it, devoted his time almost entirely to his own research, and it was not until 1871, when Wiedemann was appointed to a similar chair in Leipsic, that the new subject began to attract students. Upon Ostwald's coming to Leipsic Wiedemann confined his attention to pure physics, and physical chemistry was left entirely to Ostwald.

At the same time that he took up the work in Leipsic, Ostwald conjointly with Van Hoff began the publication of the "Zeitschrift fur Physikalischs Chomie," which was for many years the only periodical devoted exclusively to physical chemistry. In 1896 the Journal of Physical Chemistry was started in this country at Cornell University by two former pupils of Ostwald's, Professors Bancroft and Professor Trevor, and the present year has seen the establishment of a similar journal in the French language. It is a conservative estimate to say that three-fourths of the chairs of physical chemistry, both in this and foreign universities, are at present occupied by the former pupils of Ostwald.

In 1897 the University of Leipsic erected a separate building for the work in his department. Some idea of the extent of its activities may be gained from the fact that during the past year there have been within its walls over and above the students in the elementary courses, over sixty workers engaged in individual problems of advanced research. Many of them are men of maturity and experience, drawn there from all parts of the world by the advantages of the equipment and the opportunity of daily intercourse with kindred spirits. Among those workers one may at any time safely count on finding at least a half-dozen or more Americans.

PRESIDENT WHEELER WILL GIVE LANGUAGE COURSE.

BERKELEY, August 19.—A special course in linguistics is announced to be given by President Wheeler of the State University. The first lecture of the course, which is to be called the Science of Language is to be tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, in room 1, North Hall. It is principally intended that the course shall be for those who expect to become teachers of modern languages. The first lecture will be entitled "What is Language."

BOYS SYSTEMATICALLY ROB A STORE.

H. B. Martin Will Swear Out Warrants Against Youths Whom He Suspects did the Work.

BERKELEY, August 19.—Three little boys who are said to be the leaders of a gang of juvenile burglars, entered the store of H. B. Martin of 2000 Shattuck Avenue last night or early this morning, and stole a quantity of merchandise, the major portion of which consisted of watermelons.

According to Mrs. Martin, the wife of the proprietor of the store, the boys who committed the robbery last night have been systematically raiding the store.

"For the past several weeks our store has been broken into," said Mrs. Martin this morning, "and we have been waiting to secure the evidence that I believe last night's burglary has produced.

"We have well-grounded suspicions against three boys, for whose arrest we intend to swear out warrants today."

The depredations of the boys on the store have always borne the ear mark of amateurism. Entrance to the store last night was effected through a rear door.

HORSE DASHES ON SIDEWALK.

LITTLE CHILDREN HAVE NARROW ESCAPE ON CROWDED STREET.

BERKELEY, August 19.—By the merest chance a number of pedestrians escaped injury last night during a thrilling runaway. A horse and wagon belonging to Frank Esmond of Dwight Way came tearing up Shattuck avenue from the south end of the avenue.

At the corner of Shattuck avenue and Allston way, the horse crashed across the curb in front of the First National Bank, using the sidewalk as its course for an entire block.

The sidewalk was crowded and there was a great scattering for refuge in the stores. In front of a real estate office of W. J. Mortimer, the wheel of the wagon was broken and just before the sidewalk was left the horse came near running down Mrs. McNally and her infant.

The maddened horse still continued its way along Shattuck avenue and at the corner of Addison ran into a hydrant after missing little Agnes Mealy.

But very little harm was done the horse and wagon and that more damage did not ensue is considered remarkable.

The family of Postal Inspector L. H. Bricker have returned from Honolulu, where Mr. Bricker is engaged in government work.

HAYWARDS, SAN LEANDRO, EMERYVILLE, FRUITVALE, GOLDEN GATE

WILL WIRE THE TOWN.

SUBURBAN ELECTRIC COMPANY TO FURNISH FRUITVALE WITH ELECTRICITY.

FRUITVALE, August 19.—The Suburban Lighting Company is at present engaged in surveying the territory in Fruitvale sanitary district No. 2, lying east of Fruitvale avenue, preparatory to putting up electric light wires throughout the section. The territory included in the survey lies between Fruitvale avenue and High street, the tidal canal and Arlendale.

The work of wiring will be commenced the middle of next week, as soon as the linemen are through with a job they are now engaged on at Niles and Decoto. Poles will then be set and wires strung as rapidly as possible. It is the intention of the company to have all in readiness to furnish the new municipality of Fruitvale with a system of street lights. At present there is only one arc lamp in the district besides those on the county road. This light is at the Southern Pacific crossing at Fruitvale avenue.

The dense foliage in upper Fruitvale makes it extremely dark at night, and a person can scarcely see one's way along a street, especially Fruitvale avenue. Even in case the incorporation measure does not go through, it is probable that street lights will be put up as the residents of these dark sections will no doubt petition the Board of Supervisors for street lamps.

The Suburban Company intends to wire the entire district, even though at present it does not get enough subscribers to make it pay. The company realizes that this section of the county is growing rapidly and will soon furnish a profitable source of revenue.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB SMOKER.

The Fruitvale Improvement Club celebrated its second birthday Monday evening with a smoker in its room at the corner of East Fourteenth and Tevis streets. Former president Charles C. Jeffers spoke a few words, showing the advantages of incorporating. He told of the progress Emeryville was making since it had become an incorporated town. The members all expressed themselves as in favor of incorporation and agreed to work to have the proposition carried at the polls September 5, the date set by the Board of Supervisors to hold the election.

FRUITVALE CADETS.

Last Monday evening was the regular monthly open meeting of the Cadet Corps. Rev. C. C. Smoot of Woodland was present and conducted the chaplain exercises. Ernest Hunt was given a gold locket in recognition of the service he had rendered the company in bringing in new members. Neil Fredericksen was proven to be the best drilled man and received the church medal for August.

FAIR TONIGHT.

The Catholic fair at St. Elizabeth's hall opens tonight. Everything is in readiness and a large crowd is expected.

PERSONAL.

Dr. De Puy, of Fruitvale avenue, is spending his vacation at Livermore.

Mrs. C. Farno and Miss Alice Farno have returned from a visit through Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia, having been absent six weeks.

H. A. Pleitner has returned to his home in Fruitvale after spending four months traveling through Europe.

Miss Hattie Linster has returned from Idaho, where she has been visiting for some time.

TRUSTEES HOLD MEETING.

SAN LEANDRO FATHERS HOLD REGULAR SEMI-MONTHLY SESSION.

SAN LEANDRO, August 19.—The Board of Trustees held a regular semi-monthly session Monday evening, Judge Quinn and O. J. Lynch being absent. The Street Committee reported that Ernest Anderson had been engaged to make the benches ordered by the board to be placed in Court Square. They will cost $4 each. Chairman Hopper, of the committee, stated that these benches would be better than any which could be purchased in Oakland.

Town Marshal Michael Geisenhofer reported that he had collected and stored away the 66 gasoline street lamps formerly used by the town.

Faustina Faria was granted permission to trim the shade trees in front of his property on Saunders street. Marshal Geisenhofer was instructed to notify M. Johnson to remove the dead pepper tree from his proprey on Saunders street.

President Eber said that there had been considerable complaint from the property owners on Estudillo avenue in regard to the way the thoroughfare was being sprinkled. The sprinkler did its work during the morning, making the roadway very muddy to drive over. It was decided to order that the sprinkling be done at night in the future.

On motion of Trustee J. Barbeira, the merchants and residents along the principal streets were requested to decorate their places next Friday in honor of the Civil War veterans.

SOLD HER PLACE.

Mrs. Frank P. Church, the local postmistress, has sold her place on San Lorenzo avenue to A. Jensen, of Auburn.

MACCABEES TO HAVE SMOKER.

Preparations are being made by San Leandro Tent No 87, Knights of the Maccabees, to give a smoker on Monday evening, August 24. The affair will be held in Masonic hall. It is the intention of the Maccabees to present an impromptu program on this occasion, together with addresses by a number of members and visitors. A banquet will also be served.

A few weeks later San Leandro Tent will give a "ladies' night," at which time a program of musical numbers will be presented.

A PUZZLING PROBLEM.

The man seemed to be very much excited.

"We've made a bet," he said, "on a question of law, and we've agreed to leave it to you."

"I'll do the best I can to settle it," returned the great lawyer, gratified by this evidence of the opinion in which he was held. "What is the question of law?"

"Why, a $2 cat belonging to Brown ate a $10 bird belonging to Jones, and we want to know who has legal title to the combination of bird and cat."—Chicago Post.

OILING ROAD BED DELAYED.

SPRINKLER FOUND NOT TO WORK SATISFACTORILY ON COUNTY ROAD.

ELMHURST, August 19.—The work of oiling the car tracks between Oakland and Haywards by the Oakland Transit Company has been delayed somewhat of late. It was at first expected that the task would be entirely finished by this time. Only a small part of the road bed has thus far been oiled, however.

The oil tank was fitted up as a sprinkler to do the work. It was found, however, that too much oil fell on the rails, so the men were obliged to stop sprinkling until the spraying pipe could be so changed as to avoid this difficulty. The work of oiling will be resumed as soon as possible.

STATION STARTED.

The depot for patrons of the electric line has been started at Melrose. It is the desire of the residents to induce the street car company to extend the five-cent fare limit from High street to Melrose, and to this end the waiting room is being erected on the south side of the county road near the Melrose school house.

TO ARRANGE FOR GUESTS.

The local lodge of Druids, Elm Grove, No. 143, will have a business session this evening to make plans for the entertainment of the members of the grand lodge when they pay their official visit to the Elmhurst Chapter on August 26. Committees will be appointed and other arrangements made to banquet the honored guests on the night of their visit.

G. A. R. VETERANS.

Philip Herrier, William Greenslade, M. Wrightman, J. O. Clarrage, L. A. Clarrage, L. A. Frube, J. M. Ross, John Hamilton and M. Tritt are among the Elmhurst veterans who are attending the Grand Army encampment in San Francisco this week.

UNIQUE DOOR TO VAULT.

ONLY ALUMINUM TOMB DOOR KNOWN MADE IN HAYWARDS.

HAYWARDS, August 19.—There is an interesting piece of work nearing completion in the shop of H. E. Brunner. This is no other than an aluminum door for the burial vault of Rasmus Casterson in Pleasanton. Edic Patterson is the artist who is constructing this novelty in doors.

So far as is known it is the only time in the history of the world that aluminum has been used for this purpose. But unless its points of excellence count for nothing, it will not be the last. It is light in weight, attractive in appearance, does not tarnish in any kind of weather, and is more durable than any other metal. This particular door is handsomely ornamented with scroll work, and presents an appearance as if made of silver. Mr. Casterson is a well-to-do citizen of Pleasanton, who has an eye to the artistic.

BID WAS $1,000.

Contractor Dahl's bid for erecting the three-story building to be used as a vinegar plant for the California Packing Company, was about $11,000.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Patterson, a son.

TO LOCATE IN HAYWARDS.

The well known attorney, George C. Batchelder, of San Francisco, will shortly locate in Haywards to practice his profession. He is well known in this county, having resided for years at Pleasanton.

TO HONOR MISS RICE.

Miss Elsie Lavelle recently entertained a number of her friends at her home in honor of Miss Hattie Rice, a former resident of Haywards, but now of Pasadena. An impromptu program of musical and literary numbers was rendered during the afternoon. Those present were: Miss Hattie Rice, Mrs. Creelman, Mrs. C. Threlfall, Misses Bourne, Cooper, Kinsey, Allen, Haas, Obermuller and Lavelle.

FROM HONOLULU.

Among the arrivals on the steamer Alameda from Honolulu were Harry Knox and Frank Putnam. W. E. Bellina also arrived by steamer from Honolulu via Seattle the same day. F. J. Peterman came as far as Seattle with Mr. Bellina, where he will remain a few months. The boys are all in excellent health.

PERSONAL.

E. W. Reed has returned from San Jose, where he went on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Greenwell visited in Haywards last week.

William Bellina, who for the past four years has been residing in Honolulu, returned to his former home in Haywards this week.

William Graham, of Pleasanton, was a recent Haywards visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Allen have returned from their outing at Richardson Springs.

STREETS BEING REPAIRED.

MUCH NEEDED IMPROVEMENT AT GOLDEN GATE IS IN PROGRESS.

GOLDEN GATE, August 19.—A gang of men was recently placed at work regrading and macadamizing Fifty-fifth street. Just at the juncture of Fifty-fifth street and San Pablo there is an ugly drop and this as well as other defects in the roadway will be remedied.

Last night at the meeting of the local Woodmen a very enjoyable session was held. Several new applications were received and regular business transacted.

ENTRE NOUS COTILLION.

The first meeting of the Entre Nous Cotillion has been set for the second Friday in September.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Milton Healey, of Santa Cruz, is visiting with friends here and in Berkeley.

Miss Lucille Stoddart, who formerly resided in Golden Gate, is now practicing medicine in Wheatland.

LOCATES PEAK IN YOSEMITE.

CHARLES A. BAILEY MAKES AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY IN THE VALLEY.

BERKELEY, August 19.—During his summer vacation, which was spent in the Yosemite, Charles A. Bailey, the well known business man discovered a new promontory in the valley which he named "Sierra Point." The Yosemite commissioners have consented to that title by which the spot will be know in the future.

This morning Mr. Bailey received a painting of the point from Carl Jurgensen, the noted landscape artist of the valley. It is the custom of Mr. Bailey to spend his vacations in the Yosemite and he is now looked upon as an authority in matters pertaining to the valley.

"I think," sputtered Br'er Williams, in the mill pond, "dat a alligator's got my by de leg, but I'se glad it's de leg wid de rheumatism in it!"—Atlanta Constitution.

HOLLIS STREET BLOCKED.

SANTA FE CONDUCTOR IGNORES EMERYVILLE ORDINANCE—MAY TAKE ACTION.

EMERYVILLE, August 19.—Unless there is more care taken by the men now operating the Santa Fe freight trains in the matter of leaving the Hollis street crossing clear and passable, open war is likely to be declared on the company by the city officials. The fact that the Santa Fe should, in the face of an ordinance prohibiting them from so doing, allow this crossing to be blocked at different intervals during the day by empty freight cars, has for some time been a matter of comment.

Yesterday upon being remonstrated with for blocking the street by one of the city officials, the conductor of the train stated in no gentle language, that he was going to do as he pleased. He furthermore offered to chastise the official, whose position was unknown to him. It is understood that steps will be taken towards doing away with the temporary closing of any public thoroughfare by the minions of the Santa Fe.

MORE WIRES DOWN.

Some comment among the striking milimen at present here, was aroused yesterday by the sight of a non-union wireman repairing some broken wires in front of Hastings' under police protection. The telephone system has been badly tangled up in this locality lately, and these are the first repairs to be made.

WILL PLAY BALL.

If everything goes well there will be an interesting game of baseball here Labor Day. The Orinda Park nine, captain and manager, Ed Abbott, will try conclusions with the rolling mill nine.

NEW STORE OPENED.

Judge Coburn's new merchandise store, recently built on San Pablo avenue, is now in full running order.

FRATERNITY HAS NEW HOME.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The Sigma Chi fraternity has just completed negotiations for the purchase of the home of Professor Jaffa at the corner of Haste and Bowdich streets. The residence is a large one and the purchase price was in the neighborhood of $10,000.

The Sigma Chi's were compelled to move from their present quarters owing to the rapid growth of the society since its organization here a few years ago.

PERSONALS FROM NEWARK.

COMING AND GOING OF PEOPLE—NEW DEPUTY POSTMISTRESS.

NEWARK, August 19.—Mrs. Forbes has returned to San Francisco, the change from the city to Newark not having been as beneficial as it was hoped it might be. The lady suffers greatly from asthmatic and bronchial troubles.

GONE TO LOS ANGELES.

Mrs. Stair, who has for some weeks been visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Reisinger, left for Los Angeles last Saturday where she will meet a party of friends and go to the seaside, after which she will return to her home at Riverside.

NEW DEPUTY POSTMISTRESS.

Miss Neil Kirby will fill the position of Deputy Postmistress upon the retirement of Miss Emma Jarvis, the present incumbent, who will resign her position at the close of the present quarter. Miss Kirby is a favorite with everyone and her appointment will give general satisfaction.

FREE DELIVERY NEXT MONTH.

Mr. Spencer, who is to be rural letter carrier for this district, will commence his duties September 1.

GONE CAMPING.

William Graham and wife left on Saturday for Boulder where they will enjoy a few days' camping.

ATTENDED PICNIC.

A great number of Newarkers attended the picnic at Fernbrook given last Sunday by the Newark Brass Band. Among those who attended were Mrs. John Dugan, Miss Dugan, W. Dugan, Mrs. Terrill, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Biddle, members of the Wales family, Mrs. E. T. Stevenson and others.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS ABOUT BERKELEYANS.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The little daughter of Prof. H. E. Longeheeker is seriously ill.

William H. Alexander of the Latin Department of the High School is ill.

Rev. A. H. Needham, pastor of the Los Gatos Methodist church, is visiting his sons in this city.

Mrs. C. A. White of 2241 Ward street, left this morning for Capitola.

Miss Grace Richardson, a former newspaper woman of Berkeley, is visiting friends here.

Robert Welch, a letter carier, has returned from his vacation, which was spent in the southern portion of the State.

C. E. Elston, who was medalist of his class and a former baseball captain at the University, has returned to the University to do post graduate work.

Elvizi Mini, who made an excellent record on the gridiron during his University career, is now pursuing advanced work at the University.

BLACKSMITHS TO PARADE.

SMITHIES AT WEST OAKLAND WILL BE OUT ON LABOR DAY.

About thirty blacksmiths and their helpers are making great preparations for a big turnout on Labor Day. An acting committee from the other side of the bay is making the necessary arrangements. The blacksmiths will all carry hand-hammers and their helpers sledges made of wood.

They will be uniformed in black trousers, with black leather aprons, black shirts and caps, and white ties. They will carry a banner with the number and symbol of their union organization.

Jimmie Coen, one of the pioneer smithy's working for the company, will probably be at the head of the local men. He has a magnificent model of a sledge made of hard wood, which he will carry. On one side is painted "S. P., 1869," and on the other "September 1, 1902." He has stated that the Iron Trades' Council will furnish a band for the occasion.

After the parade the San Francisco blacksmiths will be the guests of the local division. The blacksmiths and boiler makers will act in harmony, and have arranged their plans with that end in view.

PAINFUL INJURIES RECEIVED DURING THE DAY'S LABOR

George Trippletts, a ship carpenter, had his left hand painfully lacerated and wrenched while at work on the new car float yesterday. In handling some heavy planks several fell on the back of his hand and carried away quite a bit of skin. George Harris, who it will be remembered, served as a regular member of the hospital corps at Manila, fixed Trippletts injuries up.

Clyde Patterson for the second time this week had a slight accident. This time while working on a boiler a steel splinter flew off and struck just below his left eye, making a gash about half an inch long.

"Tiny" Jones came in the shops yesterday with the left side of his face badly scraped and skinned. He made a misstep alighting from an Eighth street car near Chester street Monday evening with the above result.

INCIDENTS AND NOTES OF MORE OR LESS INTEREST.

There will be an interesting bowling match Thursday evening on an up-town alley between two teams from the boiler shops. Dignan and Buckingham believe they can knock pins down quicker than R. B. Felton and J. J. Sterling, and there will be a purse of $50 up as a stimulant. The conditions, however, provide that a banquet be given at the expense of the winning team.

George Hunter has baited his hook for that handsome medal that Tom Kendall, the local boatman, has offered to the angler who catches the largest bass between August 1 and October 1. He recently spent several hours after sundown on the lake and was rewarded by a black beauty that weighed—well, Hunter hasn't divulged the weight, as the rules of the contest provide.

Niles Searles, superintendent of the water system, has a gang of men overhauling the water plant at East Oakland.

The portable extension crane which has been in course of construction in the round house for sometime is completed. The crane is the result of Foreman Eckleh's idea, and will be operated by a small motor of the following dimensions: Horse power, 1½; phase, 2; cycles, 60; alternations, 1,250; amperes, 4.

Work on the huge engine frames being built in the local blacksmith shop for engine 2004, is progressing rapidly.

The Peralta street slip is being fixed up and enlarged so that the largest ferry boats or barges can be accommodated. The Solano will be the first one to be taken there for an overhauling. Formerly there was on slip here big enough to hold her.

Bob Williams and Joe Thomas leave shortly for Siskiyou county. They are both ship carpenters.

James A. Cunningham will leave next week for Eureka, where he will enter the employ of the Dickson Shipbuilding Company.

Pat Flynn, back shop foreman, laid off yesterday. Charles Gibson is temporarily taking his place.

Engine 2000, one of the old-timers, is back in the round house after a month's absence on a branch road near Elmira.

Guy Lucas has left for Niles, where he will spend about a month with his family.

Billy Moore, of Fruitvale, took a leave of absence for two weeks Monday. Last night he was married in this city.

Wirt Beem is spending this week in Walnut Creek. In his absence Kennedy has charge of the patch-bolt lathe.

The chief clerk to Mr. Robinson, assistant resident engineer, has gone down to Santa Cruz for a week's outing.

1407 comes in for a new fire-box next Monday.

When Jimmy Coen brought his wooden sledge, which he will carry in the Labor Day parade, down Saturday, Harry Abernethy inquired of him his reason for painting a large white shamrock on the green sledge. The spirit of inquiry since then has been contagious until now Coen is not easily persuaded to expose his sledge to the view of the critical public.

COMING PICNIC ON LABOR DAY.

The advisory committee of St. Anthony's Parish is making very satisfactory progress with the arrangements for the picnic to be held at Idora Park on Labor Day, September 7.

An immense refreshment booth is being erected on the grounds and will be in charge of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society of the parish. This society will hold a meeting in St. Anthony's Hall on Tuesday evening, when a majority of the 100 members will be present. Mrs. Hugh Hogan is president of this branch of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society.

Nearly 300 gate and game prizes have already been secured. Frank H. Garcia is chairman of this committee and is assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. J. S. Derby, Mrs. F. H. Garcia, Mrs. F. Ryken, Miss Josie Nesbit, Miss Belle O'Malley, Miss Clarice Graves, Miss Lucy Donovan, Miss Mamie Cordon, Mrs. Cullen, Mrs. R. H. Hammond.

Thoms E. Kane, floor manager, will have as assistants J. J. McDonald, Dr. J. M. Kane, P. N. Hanrahan, T. Gallagher, Dr. Harry F. Sullivan, P. J. Kelleher, John J. O'Connor and others to be appointed. Other committees will be appointed later.

No larger picnic will be held in this vicinity this year. Idora Park is an immense place and thousands will be easily accommodated. Five performances will be given in the theater during the afternoon and evening.

Miss Alice M. Smith, of Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering may be quickly and permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day when visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change. I use it occasionally now when I am exceptionally tired or worn out."—MISS ALICE M. SMITH, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., Chairman Executive Committee Minneapolis Study Club.

Beauty and strength in women vanish early in life because of monthly pain or some menstrual irregularity. Many suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women preserve roundness of form and freshness of face because it makes their entire female organism healthy. It carries women safely through the various natural crises and is the safeguard of woman's health.

The truth about this great medicine is told in the letters from women being published in this paper constantly.

Mrs. C. Kleinschrodt, Morrison, Ill., says:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered ever since I was thirteen years of age with my menses. They were irregular and very painful. I doctored a great deal but received no benefit.

"A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and after taking a few bottles of it, I found great relief.

"Menstruation is now regular and without pain. I am enjoying better health than I have for sometime."

How is it possible for us to make it plainer that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will positively help all sick women? All women are constituted alike, rich and poor, high and low,—all suffer from the same organic troubles. Surely, no one can wish to remain weak and sickly, discouraged with life and no hope for the future, when proof is so unmistakable that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure monthly suffering—all womb and ovarian troubles, and all the ills peculiar to women.

$5000 FORFEIT If we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

GIRL GRADUATE TO WED.

MISS LULU FRAME WILL BECOME THE BRIDE OF A NEW YORKER.

BERKELEY, August 19.—An engagement of more than usual local interest was given out today when Miss Lulu Frame, a graduate of the Berkeley High School and a member of the Alpha Sigma sorority, announced that she is to become the bride of Charles M. Parmenter of New York City. The bride-to-be is the daughter of ex School Director and Mrs. A. R. Frame and is highly accomplished on the pianoforte.

Mr. Parmenter holds a responsible position with a telephone company in the metropolis.

CHILDREN OF DISTANT LANDS.

A recent book on the children of various countries says: "A baby Japanese girl is the most delightful creature you can possibly imagine; a radiant, happy, beautiful butterfly. She is rarely known to cry, for she is rarely slapped. What mother could have the heart to touch so dainty a blossom as the child-flower of this land of flowers? The baby girl loves fun: she loves toys, sweets and tea in little cups; she loves to smoke, with a funny pipe made of brass and kept in her sleeve; and, above all, she loves her big round-headed doll. She is wonderfully playful and gentle, this child, always ideally dressed and always self-possessed. She has the loveliest mouth and teeth and twinkling black eyes, and she knows it too. The smallest Japanees wants to be beautiful: each baby girl has her dainty lacquer box of rouge and powder; she is like some wonderful fantastic tropical blossom, some dear little dragon fly. And her hair—how black it is, with blue lights, and shining where it is stiffened and gummed in loops and bands till it seems to reflect the gold lacquer and coral-tipped pins that bristle round her head! Great competition goes on between girls as to whose hair shall be most becomingly arranged, whose the smoothest and most glossy, whose girdle shall be the most gracefully tied and whose dress shall possess the most harmonious effect."

Here is another quotation from the book: "When he is 4 years old the Hindoo boy's time of idleness and happy freedom is over. His father then consults an astrologer as to which would be the luckiest day to send the son to school. When the date has been fixed he is given a bath, his very best clothes are put on and he is taken to pay a visit to the temple and to offer up sacrifices to the god of learning, praying that in his school life he may become learned and industrious. Then he is taken to school and a period of rigid discipline begins. If he is the first boy to arrive in the morning he is given one stroke of the cane across his back and each boy as he comes gets an added stroke, the last boy receiving an abundance. How fatigued that schoolmaster must be! If a child is very late indeed he is made to stand on one leg for an hour or hold his arms straight out before him or hold a brick high in the air. For every new lesson he learns he must give the master a present."

"Except on festive occasions," says this book of children, "when her face is powdered, her hair elaborately coiled and her arms bedecked with jewels, the Burmese girl baby is allowed to run wild and do just as she pleases. Soon there comes the eventful day when her ears are pierced and she leaves childhood behind her to enter society; then there is a very ceremonious festival indeed. From that day onward the Burmese young lady begins to model her life on that of a flower. In appearance and movement she strives to resemble a heavy-headed flower swaying in the breeze. She tries in every possible way to attract and captivate the Burmese youths, and she almost invariably succeeds, for a Burmese woman is one of the most charming, attractive and altogether lovable creatures on this earth."

CREAM TO BURN.

Two little girls were engaged in an animated discussion as to the merits of their respective homes.

"Well, anyway," said one little maiden in a triumphal tone, "you may have more bedrooms than we have, but we have more cream than you do. We have enough for our cereal every single morning."

"Pooh!" said the other, "that's nothing. We own a Jersey cow, and we get a whole cowful of cream twice every day."—Lippincott's for August.

JIBES FOR GREEN SOLDIERS.

SENIORS JOSH FRESHMEN DURING FIRST MILITARY LESSON.

BERKELEY, August 19. — When the freshmen lined up on the campus of the State University this morning, they were subjected to the quips and jibes that are annually administered the first-year cadets by the seniors. A large crowd of co-eds assembled to watch the embryo collegians, as they were put through the preliminary tactics.

According to an order issued by Colonel Henry de H. Waite, guard mount, for the second-year men, will be conducted.

KILLED GIRL ON LONELY ROAD.

MURDERER TOOK HIS LIFE AFTER SHOOTING HIS SWEETHEART.

CLEVELAND, O., August 19.—The names of the alleged murderer and his victim in last night's double tragedy were learned today. The man was William Leutbecher, 28 years of age, and the young woman Martha Faehnrich.

The cause given for the tragedy is the opposition of the Faehnrich family to Leutbecher's attentions to Martha.

Miss Faehnrich was a clerk in her brother's grocery store and it is supposed that Leutbecher called upon her last night and induced her to go for a walk. While in a lonely locality and not far from the girl's home, it is believed Leutbecher shot Miss Faehnrich and then killed himself.

SHE PLAYS AT THE NOVELTY

"CARITA" AT THE NOVELTY.

"Carita," the wonderful Parisian girl conjurer, now playing an engagement at Lubelski's Novelty Theater in this city. She is an exceedingly clever artist in her line.

A number of other clever entertainers are making the program at the Novelty Theater this week thoroughly enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carroll, comedy artists, do a turn that is full of variety, including singing, dancing, monologue, display, etc., which is well received.

Lester and Lester have great ability as sketch artists and dancers. They are very amusing and entertaining.

Hershell Stein, the baritone, is heard in some of his new songs. In fact, the whole performance is one of unusual excellence. The moving pictures are all new, and include a view of the "Dwarf Pirates of the Alps."

RIGHTS OF UNION MEN.

PRESIDENT SAYS UNORGANIZED LABOR MUST HAVE FAIR TREATMENT.

WASHINGTON, August 19.—An inquiry set on foot by direction of President Roosevelt is being conducted in several executive departments to ascertain whether discrimination is being practiced in the employment of labor on account of membership or non-membership in labor unions.

Immediately after the Miller case developed in the Government Printing Office, which was settled by the President reinstating Miller, who had been discharged because of expulsion from his union, the President directed Secretary Cortelyou to begin a quiet investigation as to labor conditions in other departments. A conference was held which was attended by Secretaries Root, Moody, Cortelyou and Postmaster-General Payne. Other Cabinet officers were advised of the plan of the inquiry and co-operated more or less in the work, each in his department.

The results of the inquiry have been coming in from all over the country. It has been ascertained that in many cases only union men were employed, subordinate officials laboring under the misapprehension that this was the policy of the government. President Roosevelt at once gave strict orders that there should be no discrimination between union and non-union men in Navy yards, soldiers' homes, river and harbor works, or elsewhere in the War or Navy departments. This order is regarded as of sweeping importance, since labor troubles in the yards building government vessels might logically lead to interference by the government to protect non-union workingmen.

One of the reports received was from the Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica, but the nature of the report was not made public. The Cabinet officers are carrying on the investigation with great circumspection, and the result of their work is withheld from the public wherever possible. It is said that the Letter Carriers' Association intends to bring the matter up at its convention to determine whether to attempt a fight against the proposition to give union and non-union men equal rights in the postal service. Some days ago certain labor leaders of national reputation called on Secretary Cortelyou and pointed out that if the President's orders were enforced it would be impossible for union men to work for the government under the constitutions of their organizations.

"Then you had better amend your constitution," replied Secretary Cortelyou. "You certainly don't want your constitution to be in conflict with the laws of the land."

BANDITS WERE QUICKLY CAUGHT

ST. PETERSBURG, August 19.—A dispatch received here from Port Arthur says a band of bandits recently attacked a dynamite magazine near the Manchurian frontier station and attempted to blow it up. A detachment of Cossacks captured twenty of the bandits, but the majority of the band escaped.

SALISBURY'S CONDITION.

LONDON, August 19.—The condition of Lord Salisbury is unchanged today.

INDICTMENTS TO COME.

POSTOFFICE INSPECTORS ARE STILL DIGGING UP SCANDALS IN DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, August 19.—The Grand Jury today resumed its inquiry into the affairs of the Postoffice Department and it is said that before the conclusion of the investigation, there will be another batch of indictments.

The postoffice inspectors are also engaged in original inquiries and it is understood will present the facts in the case of a number of departmental employes, which, while not criminal in character, are considered sufficiently irregular to call for attention at the hands of the high officials of the department.

Among the cases of this character is that of W. O. Hazzard, division superintendent of rural free delivery for the State of New York, who, it is charged, drew a per diem allowance of $4 a day from the Government as if on active field duty, while confined in a hospital for treatment for a gunshot wound.

These cases have not been brought officially to the attention of the postmaster-general and no decision regarding them has been reached.

OFFICERS APPOINTED TO HOLD OFFICE.

MANILA, August 19.—10 a. m.—The Philippine Commission has appointed Captain George T. Langhorne of the Eleventh Cavalry, secretary of the Provincial Government of the Province of Moro and Captain Keller, engineer officer both of the new appointees to receive an addition of 20 per cent to their army pay.

Major Robert L. Bullard, with the assistance of the friendly Moro chiefs, is making arrangements for a grand celebration and peace conference on the completion of the Lanao military road.

FIRE DESTROYS CONCENTRATOR.

SPOKANE, Wash., August 19.—Private advices from Vermillion, Mont., state that the concentrator and nearly the entire plant of the Kentucky-Vermillion Mining and Concentrating Company were destroyed by fire last Saturday. The loss is estimated at from $125,000 to $150,000, with $80,000 insurance. The property was owned by Spokane men.

TEAMSTER MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH.

LOS ANGELES, August 19.—Frank Rogers, a teamster, received fatal injuries while driving a dirt wagon under a dumping trap. His head was caught between the timbers of the trap and the wagon seat, crushing the skull. The man died within fifteen minutes.

VETERANS WILL BE THE GUESTS OF OAKLAND.

Many Contributions and Donations Pour Into Committee for Reception of Grand Army Visitors.

The meeting of the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Committee on Alameda County Day, G. A. R., yesterday afternoon was one of the most important thus held. At this meeting Dr. T. Carpenter of Alameda reported donations by the citizens of Alameda amounting to $127 which will go a great way toward paying the car-fares and other incidentals of the visitors.

As this is strictly a Grand Army Affair, the committee voted that the Grand Army Posts of Alameda county only should act as escort to the visitors on the short march from Broadway and Nineteenth street to the shores of Lake Merritt. The grand army posts of Alameda county have been requested to meet at Broadway and Nineteenth street at 10 o'clock Friday morning to act as escort, and all veterans of the Civil War have been and are invited to join with the Post on that day to assist in entertaining the veterans. The Ladies of the Maccabees and the Native Daughters have volunteered to serve the lunch to the veterans.

The Oakland Transit Consolidated have evinced their interest in the affair by offering to the committee to transport all visitors from the foot of Broadway to Nineteenth street in special cars and all of the main line cars for practically nothing, or less than half what the expense will be to the company. This company also agreed to take all visitors to Oakland on that day for half fare on the coupon ticket arranged by the committee. These tickets will be given to all Grand Army men and their families during the dinner at the Willows.

Mr. McCoy reported that the Town Trustees of Hayward had votel $50 to the committee to assist in defraying expenses.

With three or four hundred dollars more the committee can see its way clear to do what was originally started out to do, that is, not allow the visiting veterans to spend a cent in transportation, which will allow of just so much additional to be left with the merchants in this vicinity.

The committee ask of the ranchers in this county, who can do so, to donate fresh fruits and leave same tomorrow at the room engaged by the committee for receipt of donations of food, 305 Twelfth street, in the new produce market.

The committee voted to provide badges for members of the committee, that all visitors can ask questions and get all the information posible. This committee will also have charge of the tickets which will provide the visitors with free transportation to Berkeley and return; Piedmont Heights and return; Alameda and return; Haywards and return and San Leandro and return. The visitors will be furnished with coupon tickets at lunch.

EATABLES DONATED.

In reply to the request sent to parents of the pupils in the public schools for donations of cooked meats, sandwiches, hard boiled eggs, cake and pie, the following returns were received and reported at the meeting of the committee Tuesday afternoon:

Roast meats, 87 pounds; cooked chickens, 3; boiled hams, 8; boiled corned beef, 44 pounds; sandwiches, 105 dozen; boiled eggs, 77½ dozen; 227 cakes, 144 pies.

WILL ASK FOR ARBITRATION

SEATTLE CARMEN WANT DIFFERENCES SETTLED BY BOARD

SEATTLE, Wash., August 19.—At a meeting of the Street Car Men's Executive Committee, which was held early this morning and attended by nearly every member of the union, it was decided to ask the Seattle Electric Company to arbitrate the men's demands for 30 cents an hour, double time on holidays and recognition of the union. It is understood that the electric company will claim that there is nothing to arbitrate.

It is also said that a sympathetic strike will be ordered by the Western Central Labor Union, involving every union in this city except the printing trades, if the car men go out.

TELEPHONE WIRES CUT

BERKELEY WAS CUT OFF FROM OUTSIDE POINTS LAST NIGHT.

BERKELEY, August 19.—Telephone service to outside points was crippled late last night when about half a hundred wires were cut from the pole at the corner of San Pablo avenue and Jones street. The work of severing the wires was accomplished with the aid of nippers.

When the employes of the telephone company, who were summoned to repair the damage, arrived on the scene they found the wires lying in confusion on both sides of the pole. The damage was quickly repaired and communication with outside points restored.

To Deputy Marshal Carey, whose beat is in the West End, President Sabin of the telephone company offered a reward of $1000 for the apprehension of the persons who cut the wires.

MOTHERS' CLUB ELECTS BOARD OF OFFICERS.

BERKELEY, August 19.—The Mothers' Club of the Hillside School, one of the most prominent organizations of the city, has elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

President, Mrs. George B. Smythe; vice-president, Mrs. May Wallace; treasurer, Mrs. M. Doyle; secretary, Mrs. J. M. Pierce.

An unusually vigorous program will be carried out by the ladies this year. A permanent library will be installed in the Hillside School and a class in physical culture organized.

POWERS MAY TAKE ACTION

A NAVAL DEMONSTRATION MAY BE MADE AGAINST TURKEY.

PARIS, August 19.—It was learned in official quarters today that the action of Russia in ordering a naval squadron to Turkey may be speedily followed by an important joint naval action on the part of the Powers. The final determination will depend largely on Russia but if a joint demonstration shall be determined upon, the fleets of France and Austria will certainly cooperate and it is probable that the fleets of all the European Powers having Turkish interests, except possibly Germany, which throughout has not favored taking energetic steps against Turkey, will take part in the demonstration.

In the meantime the Russian squadron will not proceed to Constantinople, as has been reported but will rendezvous at the small port of the vilayet of Adrianople, above the entrance of the Bosphorus.

The exchange of communications has shown that Russia and Austria continue to co-operate fully in the action taken toward Turkey.

POLICE JUDGE LETS BILL BAILEY GO HOME.

Bill Bailey was drunk last night. Unlike the man in the song by that name, this Bill Bailey is white and a laborer by occupation. Bill Bailey ate a meal in a Japanese restaurant last night which he could not pay for and so was arrested for drunkenness.

"I was drunk your honor," declared Bill Bailey in the Police Court this morning, but I was never so drunk before.

"You can go home, Bill Bailey," sang out the judge.

GYMNASIUM FOR Y. M. C. A.

COLLEGE TOWN ORGANIZATION WILL RENT AMERICAN HALL FOR CLUB PURPOSES.

BERKELEY, August 19.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Berkeley Young Men's Christian Association last night it was decided to rent American Hall and the flat adjoining for club purposes.

It is the intention of the new organization to install a first class gymnasium in the hall and lounging apartments in the adjoining premises.

Following the meeting of the directors a social evening was held at the Baptist Church.

PRISONERS FIGHT AND ONE KILLED.

YUMA, Ariz., August 19.—During an altercation between two life-term convicts, both Mexicans, at the Territorial prison, one man was stabbed a dozen times in the chest, abdomen and legs with a small knife. One of the slashes opened the femoral artery and the man died within a few minutes.
